

NEWS RELEASE

Albemarle County Police Foundation Hosts 1st Annual Bowling with Badges

For Immediate Release

October 18, 2019

Charlottesville, VA – The Albemarle County Police Foundation (ACPF) is pleased to announce that it will co-host with the Albemarle County Police Department, the first annual “Bowling with Badges” event this Sunday, October 20th, 2019. This new community event bringing children and police together will take place from 12:00 p.m.- 4:00 p.m. at AMF Kegler’s Lanes in Albemarle County.

This event is FREE to the public and offers children of all ages the opportunity to bowl a game or two with Albemarle County Police Officers, explore police vehicles, enter a raffle for prizes and meet a K9 officer all in a relaxed, fun atmosphere. “Bowling with Badges” is the brain child of Officer Jon Snyder who developed the idea as another fun way for citizens to interact with Albemarle’s finest. This event fosters positive relationships between our community’s youth and police officers. Building these relationships is part of the Foundation’s mission to enhance the overall safety and well being of our community.

Please come out and join us for this inaugural event!

About the ACPF:

ACPF supports those who protect us and promotes public safety by supporting our Police Department in its efforts to be a professional, highly educated and trained organization, equipped to prevent crime and enhance the overall safety of our community. For questions or more information, please contact Kate Kaminski, Executive Director, kate@acpd.foundation or 434-962-3001.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT: KATE KAMINSKI, 434-962-3001