NOTE: For the winter season the newsletter will be sent out periodically when there are announcements ... instead of weekly.

YEG Winter Cycling ... back for another season!

Interested in cycling the river valley in the winter? Sandy McDonald and Sig Jensen will be running the YEG Winter Cycle meet-up again this winter. These will not be official EBTC rides, just cyclists who want to cycle in the winter.

Email yegwintercycle@gmail.com to be added to our email list. (NOTE: We will not be carrying over names from last winter, so please email us to sign up even if you were on last year's list.) Please note that your email address will be shared with the group (we will not BCC the emails), so others can plan a ride if they wish. However, to avoid email overload, do not "reply all" if you wish to reply to the yegwintercycle email.

Facebook page: YEG winter cycle (best found by searching "YEG wintercycle").

We will send out an email a few days before each ride for the meet-up time and place. Our tentative plan is to have rides on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday or Sunday. Some night rides will be planned. There's a rumour going around that the inaugural ride for the upcoming season will be this week ... so sign up to get location/time details!!

Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon, Sunday, October 27

Each cycling season, EBTC has an amazing group of volunteers that generously come forward to lead rides, serve on the Executive, and help in other ways that allow members to have great cycling experiences. The Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon is a gathering of those individuals to give them a special thank you. Each year, a volunteer is named 'Volunteer of the Year' for their contributions to the club and for 2019 the EBTC Executive identified husband and wife team, Jim Lochhead and Sandy McDonald; CONGRATS!! Thanks Sandy and Jim and to all the volunteers for making EBTC such a success at providing a multitude of fun, diverse, and safe riding opportunities for its members. If you would like information on volunteering as a ride leader, contact Terry Fannon, Touring Coordinator.
