News From Presbytery

1. Rev Scott McAllister (UCC) has been inducted as the Moderator of Presbytery for a period of 2 years.
2. On May 11th the WMS will be hosting a "Blanket Exercise" at 10am at Knox Leamington; if you are interested, let Tim know. Please also collect your milk bags, as they are used to weave colourful mats for Street Help in Windsor and for Canadian Food for Children.
3. New Standing Orders for Presbytery's Committees have been approved and now need to be implemented.
4. The "Strategic Plan" of the Presbyterian Church in Canada was brought to the attention of Presbytery; details can be found on: <https://presbyterian.ca/strategic-plan/>
5. Presbytery has approved a process whereby contracted ministers (such as presently at Valetta, New St. Andrew's Dover, Knox Wallaceburg) and ruling elders involved in pastoral care can be nominated and trained (by Presbytery) to give the sacraments, under the annual review and close monitoring by their respective interim-moderator. (See BoF 201.4)
6. Presbytery and Synod dues for 2019 were approved and received, respectively.
7. Rev. Joshua Kang has recently remarried and is now serving in a two-point charge on Manitoulin Island in the United Church.
8. Continue to pray for Lakeshore St. Andrew's at this time of transition.

CHRIST  he KING

THE ORDER OF SERVICE Nov 25th, 2018 (10:30am)

* Indicates to stand if able

Prelude

Welcome

*A Call to Worship (Based on Psalm 93)

The Lord is king! He is robed in majesty.

Indeed, the Lord is robed in majesty and armed with strength.

His world is firmly established; it cannot be shaken.

Your throne, O Lord, has been established from time immemorial.

You yourself are from the everlasting past.

The mighty oceans roar, O Lord, as they pound the shores.

But mightier than the violent raging of the seas is the Lord, our King

His royal decrees cannot be changed.

The nature of your reign, O Lord, is holiness forever.
