Compassion Amherstburg:

A Growing Community that Cares and Connects.

Most people desire to live a good quality of life, be connected with others, and feel valued. Nevertheless, there is a growing problem of loneliness and social isolation in communities - for all sorts of good reasons. It is well-documented that lack of social connections contributes to poor (physical and mental) health and self-care.

St Andrew's is now a member of Compassion Amherstburg, which itself is a part of Windsor-Essex Compassion Care Community. We have three trained volunteers (Sharon Slingsby, Marg Marks, and Donna Wright) who will facilitate the completion of WECCC's "Neighbours Survey" that helps individuals identify their interests, self-assess their quality of life, and create goals for improved connectivity and well-being.

Think about your quality of life. Does the above description resonate with you? If undertaking this confidential survey sounds interesting to you, then please contact Tim, Marg, Donna, or Sharon.

Prelude

Welcome

*Call to Worship: (Based on Psalm 27)

The LORD is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?

The LORD is the stronghold of my life—of whom shall I be afraid?

Even when all seems to be falling apart, even then I will be confident.

There is one thing I ask from the LORD, that I may dwell in his presence all my life.

For in times of trouble, he will protect me.

And I remain confident of this: I will experience God's goodness.

Wait for the LORD; be strong and have hope, be patient for the LORD's salvation.
