This video presents the testimonies of seven Inuit women from Nunavik (Arctic Quebec, Canada) who share their experiences and their reflections on alcoholism. They tell how alcohol entered their lives, how it impacted their personal and family lives, and how they tried saying no to alcohol and succeeded. They show possible ways to overcome alcohol consumption and treasure life again.

With the participation of Suzie Thomassie, Mina Kenuajuak, Siasi Mark, Amaly Alasuak, Nellie Iqiquq-Powell, Nellie Ittukallak and Annie Ittukallak.

This DVD is meant to be a tool for prevention of alcohol abuse in Inuit communities and for intervention with those who need help. Any screening of the video should be supervised, and counselling should be offered to participants.
