

Amplified Sciences Presents at BIO Investor Forum

INDIANAPOLIS, IN, (Oct. 13, 2020) – Amplified Sciences, LLC, a diagnostic startup company focused on detecting and pre-empting the risks of debilitating diseases announces that Diana Caldwell, CEO will be presenting at the BIO Investor Forum Digital conference held October 13, 2020 through October 16, 2020. The company presentation is available virtually on demand throughout the conference.

Further, Amplified Sciences will be featured live on October 14th at 1pm EST in the “Platform Technologies, Diagnostics and Digital Health” networking session. The session will start with short 1 minute presentations followed by live networking at the company’s virtual “table.”

Amplified Sciences was chosen as one of 10 companies in the high profile “Buzz of BIO” Diagnostics and Beyond contest leading up to this event.

Additionally, Caldwell is participating in the BIO One-on-One meetings with investors and industry partners who are part of the conference.

For conference registration information, see more information here.

---

ABOUT AMPLIFIED SCIENCES

Amplified Sciences is a startup life science diagnostics company focused on detecting and pre-empting the risks of debilitating diseases, thus providing health providers the ability to treat patients earlier with better outcomes. The company has operations in West Lafayette, Indiana, leverages technology licensed from Purdue University, and has developed a platform that scales to point of care. To learn more about Amplified Sciences, visit amplifiedsciences.com.

Media Contact: contact@amplifiedsci.com