ABOUT AUSTAL USA

Austal USA is an advanced shipbuilder headquartered in Mobile, Alabama with service centers in San Diego and Singapore. The company’s modern ship manufacturing facility is designed to maximize efficiency through the use of moving assembly lines for module construction and adherence to lean manufacturing principles. Austal USA joined the U.S. defense market in 2004 and quickly rose to become the fifth largest shipbuilder in the U.S. Today, Austal USA supports both steel and aluminum ship construction as well as services and support worldwide. The company is under contract with the U.S. Navy to build the small surface combatant Independence-variant Littoral Combat Ship, the auxiliary ship Expeditionary Fast Transport, and the Navajo-class Towing, Salvage and Rescue ships. Earning safety excellence awards the last six consecutive years, Austal USA continues to be one of the safest shipyards in America.
In 2012, Austal USA first teamed up with their current and potential vendors to raise money for United Way of Southwest Alabama. The Austal USA Charity Golf Invitational resulted from this partnership effort. Every year the tournament has exceeded goals in both players and donations.

In 2022 we are expanding our outreach, proceeds from the tournament will benefit:

- UNITED WAY OF SOUTHWEST ALABAMA
- DUMAS WESLEY COMMUNITY CENTER
- VETERANS RECOVERY RESOURCES

The United Way of Southwest Alabama will strengthen communities by focusing on uniting and mobilizing resources that support the building blocks for a better life: Education, Financial Stability, Health, and Essentials.

Veterans Recovery Resources is dedicated to delivering the highest-quality, compassionate, affordable substance abuse and mental wellness services to all Veterans, first responders and their families. Veterans Recovery Resources collaborate with the VA to address the sheer volume of Veterans seeking help in the community and accelerate Veteran well-being by removing the barriers to mental healthcare and providing a unique recovery program. Veterans helping other Veterans makes sense, and together they commit to a new mission in life as a community.
