

NeighborFood Seattle

2020 Report

NeighborFood brings together local restaurants, community organizations, and grassroots volunteers to deliver fresh, high-quality meals to the growing numbers of our neighbors struggling with food insecurity. A collaborative creation of Gethsemane Lutheran Church, Dimitriou's Jazz Alley and Northwest Food Alliance, NeighborFood strives to provide quality meals to food banks, emergency meal providers, and individuals and families living in shelters and affordable housing apartments during this difficult time.

Funding from Gethsemane Lutheran Church and Dimitriou's Jazz Alley have allowed this program to continue to serve nutritious, restaurant-quality meals to those in the community. Additionally, Jazz Alley's donation of staff time, kitchen space and transportation resources has been an invaluable contribution to the project that has kept program costs at a minimum.
