

AUCKLAND AIRPORT TO HELENA BAY

Auckland boasts New Zealand's largest airport with dozens of major international airlines offering direct flights there.

1. Arriving at Auckland airport (located 23 minutes south of central Auckland), you'll want to head east along SH20B and connect with State Highway 1. From there simply head north on SH1 and in 3 hours, you'll hit Whakapara, just north of Hikurangi.
2. Turn east at Whakapara and drive northeast up Russell Road. From there, it's just 20 minutes and 20 kilometres 'til you hit the coast.
3. At Helena Bay's junction, head north, not south. You're looking for a private road branching east, 600m north of the Russell Road-Webb Road junction. After 1.4km (0.87mi), you'll roll into Helena Bay Lodge, located precisely here.
