

GETTING HERE

Auckland Airport to Helena Bay Lodge is 217 kilometres. This is about a 3-hour drive.

- On leaving the Airport complex follow the signs to Auckland going northwest on George Bolt Memorial Drive. At the roundabout, take the exit onto State Highway 20A.
- After 4.7 kilometres merge onto State Highway 20 heading North.
- Take exit 15 for Queenstown Road towards Auckland.
- Take the third exit on the roundabout to follow Urban Route 12 towards Auckland.
- Continue to follow Urban Route 12
- After 5.3 kilometres turn left onto Alpers Ave/Urban Route 12 following signs towards Auckland.
- After 350 metres turn right onto The Drive.
- After 300 metres take the ramp to Auckland on the left and merge onto State Highway 1.
- Stay on State Highway 1 following the signs north. You will cross the Auckland Harbour Bridge and pass through many residential areas. You should remain on State Highway 1 for 181.4 kilometres. Keep following the signs pointing towards Whangarei.
- State Highway 1 has a section which is a toll road. This is a completely cashless system and you can pay the toll online when you get to Helena Bay. We will help you with this.
- Continue past Whangarei on State Highway 1 for approximately 19 kilometres.
- Turn right onto Russell Road. This is 200 metres past the BP fuel station and is signposted Oakura.
- From there drive 19.4 kilometres to Helena Bay. Do not go down the road signposted Helena Bay, the lodge is 750m further down Russell Road.
