Helena Bay Lodge

Tucked away on New Zealand's North Island is Helena Bay Lodge, a brand new lodge with just 10 guest rooms and suites set on 800 acres of land with four private beaches. Explore the expansive coastal property by kayak, paddleboard, or even by mountain bike. Relax by the pool and stare out into the sparkling blue-green waters of the bay or unwind with a glass of pinot noir from the wine cellar, which houses more than 1,000 bottles of hand-selected wines.
