AFSCME Local 1067 and MCCC are standing together in response to the Community College President's memorandum with regard to Janus.

There was some controversy with regard to a joint meeting with the Community College President's Labor Council meeting as the President of AFSCME was uninvited to attend. Below and on the following pages are the emails (green emails are from MCCC and AFSCME) that transpired...

Dear Ms. Kearns,
This will follow up on President Glenn's office's emails to you about setting up a meeting between AFSCME and the Community College Presidents' Labor Committee to discuss any outstanding issues related to the Janus decision. As you know, President Lane's office staff inadvertently thought the meeting with AFSCME would be held in conjunction with a meeting with the MCCC on August 28. You may disregard those emails. The meeting with the MCCC will be held in the context of the MCCC contract's joint labor/management committee. Consequently, other labor issues relative to the MCCC will be discussed at the meeting. The Presidents and I will thus meet with AFSCME on another date.

Quinsigamond Community College has offered to host the meeting. Please provide some dates in the next two to three weeks that work best for you and your team. I will then coordinate with the Presidents to select a date. Thank you and I look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Mr. Murray and Mr. Glenn,

In response to your email below, the harm to AFSCME Local 1067 and the MCCC based on the memo the Presidents Council sent to everyone at the community colleges was equal. Therefore, I am not inclined to disregard the emails that invited me to discuss this issue alongside my MCCC union brothers and sisters.

I have spoken to and confirmed with MCCC President, Margaret Wong, that the meeting is not intended to be part of the MCCC contract’s joint labor/management committee, and that the MCCC also wants this to be a joint AFSCME/MCCC meeting with representatives from the Presidents Council responsible for sending out the memo inviting union members to rethink their union membership.
I look forward to a productive meeting at QCC on August 28.

Best regards,

-Sheila

Dear Ms. Kearns,

Let me be very clear and frank as you do not seem to have understood the previous correspondence from me and President Glen’s office. You are not invited to the August 28 meeting with the MCCC and we will not meet with you on that day. The meeting on 8/28 is for the MCCC. We plan on discussing several issues with the MCCC other than Janus. As we have previously stated, we are happy to meet with AFSCME on another date. If you would so like to meet, please provide dates on which you and your team would be available to meet. If you have any questions, please contact me.

Michael Murray, DHE

Lane, your original email said that “there are a number of remaining issues related to the Janus decision and its implementation the unions and the colleges would benefit from discussing and working together to resolve.” The setting up of dates for our regular Joint Study Committee meetings was part of the email, but was in the next paragraph.

I cannot be made a party to breaking faith with a fellow union president after we sent out our joint letter. Our unions are under attack as it is, and we need to be working together.

To that end, if the August 24 meeting cannot involve both AFSCME and the MCCC to deal with an issue that affected us equally, I will understand that the August 24 meeting was never intended in good faith to work collaboratively with us to deal with the situation unilaterally created by the ill-advised memo authored by the labor committee. As a result, we, unfortunately cannot move forward with the August 24 meeting.

Margaret

Mr. Murray is correct. Please note that the invitation to meet was addressed to you individually, not to you and Ms. Kearns. My apologies for any confusion created when my office merged the two meetings, but they are intended to be separate.

Thanks,
Lane

Hi Margaret,

I just wanted to take a quick second to confirm our meeting on Aug 28 and to clarify that the meeting is solely with the MCCC. The meeting is a contractual Joint Study Committee meeting and we do not think it appropriate to have Afscme or any other union present especially since we are likely to raise or discuss other MCCC issues that day. We have indicated to Ms. Kearns of Afscme that we will be happy to meet with Afscme on another date.

In case you are unaware, the confusion started when President Glenn's office staff inadvertently invited both union's to a meeting at the same time. We immediately advised Afscme that was an error and offered to meet on another date. Despite this, Ms. Kearns insists that she will attend our meeting on August 28. I have made it clear to her that we will not meet with her or Afscme on August 28 with at the MCCC meeting.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Michael Murray, DHE
Mr. Murray/Mr. Glenn,

Allow me to first begin by addressing Mr. Murray’s surly email. As a reminder under the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA) when union officers are engaged in a forum such as this, we are equal with management. This is not a “master-servant relationship” and I do not appreciate the disrespect illustrated in Mr. Murray’s response.

Furthermore, I most certainly understand the correspondence from you both. It has become abundantly clear that your disposition is not to work collaboratively with the unions, but independently in an effort to divide us. With all due respect, Mr. Glenn’s original email stated “there are a number of remaining issues related to the Janus decision and its implementation the unions and the colleges would benefit from discussing and working together to resolve.”

Once again, how can the community college unions, AFSCME and the MCCC, be expected to trust Management going forward? It appears to be evident that neither the Community Colleges nor Mr. Murray wish work together with the unions, but would rather work against us in a situation of roiling labor unrest.

Moreover, our unions are under attack and we need to be working together. If a meeting involving both AFSCME and the MCCC cannot be scheduled to deal with the situation unilaterally, I will figure it to be that the invitation to meet was never intended in good faith and as a result AFSCME will not meet with the Community College Council of Presidents Labor Committee and Mr. Murray.

Dear Ms. Wong and Ms. Kearns:

My apologies again for the miscommunication from my office that led to confusion about our planned August 28th meeting. Our initial position to meet with MCCC and AFSCME separately was not intended to cause further friction, but was grounded in the parties' longstanding practice as well as legal parameters under existing labor law. However, we note your concerns and are mindful that successful problem resolution requires constructive dialogue between the parties involved—from both directions.

In an effort to move forward in a productive and mutually respectful manner, the Community College Presidents Labor Committee is offering to reconfigure the Special Joint Study Committee scheduled with the MCCC at Quinsigamond Community College on August 28th at 1:00 pm and schedule in its place a brief initial joint meeting with both the MCCC and AFSCME in order that you may bring to our attention any lingering concerns about the impact of communications around the Supreme Court’s Janus decision.

While the Committee is willing to hear from both unions together at this brief initial meeting, the Committee notes that any discussions regarding the possible impact, if any, on a particular union should, and must, be appropriately addressed in separate impact bargaining sessions with the applicable union(s). We would certainly be willing to provide some time on our meeting day next week to meet separately to address any such impact or related issues.

Prior offers have been made to the MCCC DAY and DCE bargaining units and to AFSCME to meet to bargain the impact, if any, of the JANUS decision, and such offers remain in effect. Should your union(s) like to meet per these offers, we would be more than happy to schedule meetings between the parties' appropriate representatives for that purpose.

If you wish to accept our renewed offer to meet on August 28, please confirm to Cheryl Goodwin at cgoodwin@necc.mass.edu.

It is my hope that we can resolve these miscommunications and engage in productive discussions, first jointly, and then separately, in order to work together and resolve any Janus related issues.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter and we hope to see you on August 28.

Weingarten Rights

Weingarten Rights. Know them, Use them! (SAVE THIS INFORMATION)

If you are unsure if they apply, ask for them anyway. Better to be safe than sorry.

Know your rights! Please read below!

Employee Rights in “Weingarten” Meetings – Know Them, Use Them!

Beware that management is not obligated to inform employees of their Weingarten rights — employees must ask for them.

Unlike Miranda rights — where police are required to tell a suspect of his/her right to an attorney, etc. — employees must ask for their Weingarten rights.

Weingarten – State the following:

If the discussion in this meeting could in any way lead to my being disciplined or terminated or impact on my personal working conditions, I request that my steward, local officer or union representative be present.

Without union representation, I choose not to answer any further questions at this time.

This is my right under a Supreme Court decision called Weingarten.

Weingarten rights apply during investigatory interviews when a supervisor questions an employee to obtain information that could be used as grounds for discipline for either you or a colleague. When an employee believes such a meeting may lead to discipline, he/she has the right to request union representation.

These basic Weingarten rights stem from a Supreme Court’s decision.

- The employee must request representation before or during the meeting.
- After an employee makes the request, the supervisor has these choices:
  - grant the request and wait for the union representative’s arrival;
  - deny the request and end the meeting immediately; or
- give the employee the choice of either ending the meeting or continuing without representation.

(Never, ever, ever, continue without representation! EVER!)

If the supervisor denies the request and continues to ask questions, the employee has a right to refuse to answer!

In addition, the supervisor is committing an unfair labor practice.

As always, call your Chief Steward if you have questions or if you are unsure!

Please note: Do NOT think that you are bothering your steward if you have a question or a problem with your supervisor and/or management. That is what we are here for.

Janus v. AFSCME

The United States Supreme Court has ruled in a case that could affect your union-negotiated job security, pay and benefits. The case is Janus v. AFSCME Council 31, and you need to know the facts:

- Anti-worker billionaires brought the case. The same 1-percenters who have been rigging the system against working people poured millions more into buying a ruling that could hurt you, your co-workers and working families.

- They want to bust unions. They know that unions like ours must represent every worker equally, even if some choose not to join as members. They convinced the Court to say that workers who receive all the benefits of a union contract and union representation no longer have to chip in to cover their fair share of the costs in an attempt to hurt the strength of our union.

- They want to sap our power. They know the power of a union comes from our strength in numbers. Corporate bigwigs have the power of money, but we have the power of people. That’s why they plan to spend tens of millions to convince people like you to quit your union.

- They want to divide us. The more people who stick together in our union, the more power we have to negotiate good pay, benefits and job security. If people quit, that power goes away.

You can defend yourself! You can do one simple thing, right now, to prevent their attacks from hurting the job security and union-negotiated benefits you deserve and count on.

Let us know you’ll never quit your union by signing the pledge today.

Public service workers never quit on our communities, and we never quit on each other.

No court case can change that.

Don’t be a Janus!

MASS TRANSFER

Transferring from community college is now a lot easier - The Boston Globe 08/17/18

Until recently, the Massachusetts public higher education system had 2,200 different transfer agreements among the 29 different campuses, making it nearly impossible for students to know what credits would count, and where. But higher education officials and faculty have spent the past several years creating a new transfer program designed to make it easier and more affordable for students to earn a bachelor’s degree in Massachusetts.
