

The background of the flyer features several stylized illustrations of golf equipment. In the top left, there is a golf ball with a dimpled pattern. In the top center, a golf club head is shown. In the top right, another golf ball is visible. On the left side, a golf club shaft and head are partially shown. On the right side, another golf club shaft and head are partially shown. At the bottom left and bottom right, more golf club heads are visible, suggesting a driving range setting.
