ABOUT THE EVENT

The 2021 Art in the Garden event will celebrate Spring and showcase the latest in florals, botanicals, glass, metal, wood, jewelry and fiber art trends in Arizona.

Set in our beautiful sculpture garden, this fun, morning and afternoon event will start at 10 a.m. and feature a colorful display of artist tents, umbrellas, live music, various art and garden workshops, and a silent auction, complimented by a ticketed, “Sparkling Tea” on our back garden patio.

A shade structure created of colorful umbrellas will be the setting for the Sparkling Tea, to be held from 1 – 3 p.m. Live music and a menu featuring finger sandwiches and petite pastries will be complemented by guest speakers and, of course, tea and a sparkling accompaniment!

All artists selected to participate in the Art in the Garden event will receive a reduced-price ticket to attend the sparkling tea. Seating assignments can be made in advance for those artists wishing to host their own table. All artists attending the tea must make arrangements for their booths to remain open while they are attending the tea.

A portion of our funds raised from this year’s Sparkling Tea will be used to underwrite the costs of our annual Summer Art Camps for children.

MEDIA

For this event, we are accepting submissions from Arizona artists who create works in garden-related mediums such as graphite, colored pencil, watercolor, oil and acrylic paints, ceramic, fiber (scarves/drapes), wood, glass, metal, mosaics, & photography.
