Deputy Auditor Valerie Walling introduced a number of recent additions to the Auditor’s Office, including several Staff Auditors and Senior Auditors who were in the audience. Ms. Walling then introduced the Committee to two recently promoted staff members, Emily Jacobson and Sam Gallaher, who now serve the Auditor’s Office in Specialist roles, using their advanced education and experience.

Emily Jacobson has served the Auditor’s Office as a Communications Specialist since 2011. In her expanded role as the new Reporting and Research Specialist, she will assist audit teams in finding the most solid and recent criteria to support audit findings and will continue to collaborate with teams on enhancing the visual presentation and effectiveness of audit reports.

Sam Gallaher joined the Auditor’s Office in 2015 as a Senior Auditor and soon started a Data Boot Camp. In his new role as a Data Analytics and Methodology Specialist, he will, like Ms. Jacobson, have an advisory role in assisting audit teams with methodologies, data collection, and analytics, in addition to spearheading the Office’s continuous auditing program.

General Business: Distribution of 2017 Audit Committee Manual
Deputy Auditor Walling walked the Audit Committee through the contents of the updated Audit Committee Manual. Auditor O’Brien added that while the City Charter gives the Audit Committee certain responsibilities, he understands the Committee’s desire to delegate some of those duties to the Auditor’s Office itself. He is looking into proposed changes to the municipal Code that will streamline those duties and bring requirements in line with current times and oversight needs.

With no other public business, the Auditor called for a motion to move into Executive Session for the Committee’s discussion with the External Auditors. Mr. Blumenthal moved to continue the meeting in Executive Session, and Ms. Nath seconded the motion. With no objections, the motion passed, and the public portion of the meeting adjourned at 10:07 a.m.

The next Audit Committee meeting will be held on Thursday, March 16, 2017 at 9:00 a.m. in the Parr-Widener Community Room (#389) on the 3rd floor of the City & County Building at 1437 Bannock Street.

Executive Session: Presentation of Preliminary Audit Letter

Present on behalf of BKD were Chris Telli, Jodi Cates, Nikki Kubly, and Adam Russell.
