

Charles Price – David Issues of the Heart

David is described as a man after God's own heart. That word "heart" is a very important one in Scripture as it reoccurs about 570 times. It is not speaking of the physical heart but rather talking about the inner core of our lives.

Thriving in the Empty Nest

For many, the empty nest is a time of grief. The sense of loss is multifaceted. Not only is there the absence of a beloved family member, but also a loss of purpose. Transitions are never easy, especially when we have no choice in the change. All of life is a transition to something. Rather than feeling regret over what is left behind, how can we learn to appreciate and look forward to what God is doing at each new stage?

We live in a culture that prizes niceness as one of its highest virtues. Niceness keeps the peace, wins friends, gains influence, and serves our reputations well, but it also takes the teeth out of our witness and the power out of our faith. In this 5-session series, Sharon Hodde Miller challenges readers to cultivate a better "tree," providing practical steps to reclaim our credibility as followers of Christ, and bear better, richer, more life-giving fruits.
