

Education/Credentials Verification Report Summary

- This report helps you combat the widespread overstatement and exaggeration of personal data on resumes.
- By verifying credentials, you ensure the competence of your applicant while protecting your investment and decision to hire.
- Documents an applicant's education start dates, end dates, major fields of study and degrees earned, combating the most enhanced areas on resumes today.
- Other stated credentials can also be validated through the issuing institution or organization.
- Report turnaround times average 1-3 days.

Features

- Verifications are performed by experienced members of the Selection.com staff.
- A detailed Log File is maintained and available to view via Fastrax Select.
- The following information is required to do a verification: name, date of birth, Social Security Number, name of school, city and state.
- Requested, but not required, information includes: years attended and area of study.

