CB Certification of the Spartan Dispenser

Technical Bulletin Reference No. 2105-001

We at Lancer are pleased to announce that the Spartan dispenser has completed its testing and has been issued a CB Scheme Certificate as validation to our meticulous manufacturing practices and to ensure access to the Global marketplace. The CB scheme is an international system applying to the safety of electrical and electronic products so that they can be readily accessed and be accepted in international markets. The CB certificate and CB report are recognized in over 50 countries around the world.
