

Supreme Coordinating Package

The Details:

- 60-64 hours of time is allotted in this package. This includes 20 to 30 hours of meetings with you and your vendors or at your venue as well as approximately 40-man hours on your wedding day.
- 20 field trips, consultations with vendors or venue, are included (max 1.5 hrs ea). You are welcome to combine 2 to 3 field trips to make a day of planning. Additional consultations are available for an additional fee.
- A Timeline will be created to target the details of your day. Approximately two to three weeks prior to your wedding, all vendors are contacted & their delivery and or set up times are confirmed and submitted onto your timeline. They are then sent an email with their confirmation. A copy of this will be sent to you for your final approval about two weeks before your date. Your approved timeline will then be sent to your vendors the week of the wedding date.
- Ceremony rehearsal Coordination is available the day before (max 1.5 hrs). We will assist you with the line up and flow of the wedding party for your ceremony in the event that the church does not provide this service. This also gives us the opportunity to meet your bridal party as well.
- We are available to act as your Masters of Ceremony. We will make key announcements during your reception such as announcing your wedding party, your parents and grandparents. Additionally, we inform your guest of what's happening next and when such as your cake cutting and toast, first dance, garter toss, bouquet toss, etc.

Before your wedding day:

We will be glad to provide you with as much guidance as you request and more! This will guarantee a seamless execution of your special day!

- We will provide you with a suggested breakdown of what to do during the months before as well as the week of your wedding day.
- Special etiquette suggestions will be made available to you upon request.
- A floor plan of your reception and ceremony site can be produced for you to eliminate any guests flow concerns and seating needs.
- We will provide you with a list of duties for your wedding party and House Party
