

---

Family Therapist Denver, Longmont, Colorado Springs

Savio is a Denver based organization dedicated to providing the highest quality and cutting-edge mental health services to our clients and community. Our organization is seeking a full-time Family Therapist to provide a variety of therapeutic services to children, adolescents, and families.

Our close-knit teams are made up of passionate and dedicated clinicians who value creativity, a growth mindset, and strengths-based models.

Values to mesh with here at Savio:

A person who values humor, a light-hearted/warm atmosphere and is looking to be a part of a relational team.

A person who is looking to grow personally and professionally.

A person who is excited to work with kids & families and who is excited about using an evidence-based approach to treatment.

A person who is hard working has good attention to details, comfortable with computers, and learning new software.

Required Candidate Experience

Master's Degree preferred in Human Services

Ability to register with DORA

Experience working with children, adolescents, families, and adults

Experience with basic computer skills/knowledge

Job Details/Description:

Savio works with families in their communities to provide real-time interventions. We work with children, juveniles and their families to connect families to resources and community agencies to better address needs and resolve barriers. We work to empower parents to fulfill parental roles by enhancing relationships, communication, and problem-solving skills.

We utilize Multisystemic Therapy (MST), Functional Family Therapy (FFT), Sexual Based Interventions (SAI), Child Protection (CP), Residential Services, Child Placement Agencies (CPA) and Therapeutic Foster Care of Oregon (TFCO) to uniquely match a family's needs for the best possible outcome.

Job Type: Full-time

Salary: $35,000.00 to $43,000.00 /year