

2021 ND ABA Conference

[Virtual format]

NDABA is proud to host Dr. Mark Dixon as our guest presenter!

★ Save the Date ★
April 12 & 13, 2021

Dr. Mark Dixon, Ph.D., BCBA-D

Dr. Dixon is a Board Certified Behavior Analyst – Doctorate and a clinical professor at the Department of Disability and Human Development, College of Applied Health Sciences at the University of Illinois Chicago. Dr. Dixon has published 12 books, over 230 peer reviewed journal articles, and delivered 1000s of presentations around the globe. His research and/or expert opinions have been featured in Time Magazine, Newsweek, The New York Times, National Public Radio, This American Life, and Netflix’s series Bill Nye Saves the World.

Dr. Dixon cares for individuals and their families impacted by autism and other developmental disabilities through his innovative research that guides practice. He has generated millions of dollars of funding to infuse behavior analysis within local schools and treatment facilities and created multiple clinics for persons diagnosed with autism and related conditions. Dr. Dixon is also known for his work with the PEAK Relational Training System and Accept-Identify-Move (AIM): A Behavior Analytic Curriculum for Social Emotional Development in Children.

Conference Information

This year, we are offering an option to pay for registration & CEs at the same time (not required)!

- Early bird registration [now – February 28, 2021] = $40 per registrant / $120 with CEs
- Regular registration [March 1 – the conference] = $60 per registrant / $140 with CEs

2021 Conference Registration Link

One Member-at-large position will be opening up on the ND ABA Board. Elections will be held at the conference board meeting. A “Call for Nominees” message will be coming soon.

Additional News

Please consider learning more about the ND legislative process & supporting legislation benefitting our field.

Thank you to our [current] 2021 Conference Sponsors

The goal of North Dakota Association for Behavior Analysis is to network, collaborate, support one another, and to grow the field of Behavior Analysis in the state of North Dakota.