ABOUT

Megan is in her 20th year as a full time REALTOR®. She is creative and innovative with her approach to real estate marketing. With thorough understanding of online media, she has continued success with broad-reaching campaigns, increasing user engagement, and ultimately selling real estate. Known among her real estate peers as someone they like to do business with, she is an excellent communicator who looks to create a win-win between buyers and sellers. Megan takes pride in the business she has created through repeat and referred clients.
