The History of Jabberwock

The name "Jabberwock" is a title taken from the short story "Through the Looking Glass" by Lewis Carroll. "Jabberwock" is a poem of clever nonsense that could only be read when held up to a looking glass. The atmosphere of the Jabberwock Cotillion was created so each participant would be able to hold her dreams, both clever and fantastic, up to the looking glass and make sense of the "Jabberwock". The young ladies of the Jabberwock Cotillion have the courage and determination to step through their mirrors, find truths in the illusion and confront, create and change their individual and collective futures.

Purpose

The East Point/College Park Alumnae Chapter has held an annual Jabberwock Scholarship Pageant since 1984. Today, we now continue the tradition biennially.

The Jabberwock Cotillion is a comprehensive scholarship program designed to enhance leadership, character, self-awareness and social awareness through a series of rich interactive workshops and cultural activities. The elegant culminating activity is the cotillion, where the young ladies are awarded scholarships, presented to society and Miss Jabberwock is crowned.
