Participant Code of Conduct

Code of Conduct

All program participants are expected to observe a code of conduct. The Code of Conduct embodies the affirmation to be an active program participant, committed to personal development and the development of the other program participants.

- 1. I will respect all participants and adult volunteers. I will not use foul, hurtful or obscene language or engage in physical violence, bullying (including cyber-bullying) or other aggressive behaviors that threaten the safety of others.
- 2. I will respect the property rights of others. This means that I will not damage or deface the building or property within the building where program activities are held; will not damage or take the personal property of another, and will not use the Sorority's or the program's name or any symbol or logo (Delta's intellectual property) on any clothing, books, bags, or other items.
- 3. I will return supplies to their proper place after using them.
- 4. I will clean up all work areas properly.
- 5. I will not chew gum while participating in program activities.
- 6. I will listen carefully to directions and when someone else is talking.
- 7. I will respect designated quiet areas, such as homework/reading areas.
- 8. I will stay within the program's designated areas within the building.
- 9. I will cooperate and participate in organized activities.
- 10. I will abide by the program participant dress code. I understand that proper and appropriate attire is required at all program activities. There will be no shorts or skirts above my mid-thigh, no sheer or see-through clothing, no obscene t-shirts, and no midriff showing.
- 11. I will assume full responsibility for all personal belongings. I will leave valuables at home.
- 12. I will abide by the Internet Use Policy provided by Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.
- 13. I will restrict the use of my cell phone during program sessions. I understand my cell phone may be used to contact my parents at any time during the session, but will seek permission from an adult volunteer to use it. Texting and using other applications on my cell phones is prohibited during program sessions, unless use of it is allowed by an adult volunteer.
- 14. I will not bring any weapons, cigarettes/drugs, alcohol, or anything illegal to any activity at any time.
