

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.
East Point / College Park Alumnae Chapter
Youth Pick-Up Policy and Authorization

The East Point/College Park Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated has adopted the following policy for participant pick-up for all youth programs of the chapter:

1. Parents/guardians are responsible for arranging transportation to and from program sessions.
2. The chapter shall maintain and use a daily sign-in log.
3. Only authorized persons identified on the Youth Pick-Up Authorization form will be allowed to pick up a participant from the program.
4. Persons desiring to pick up a program participant will be asked to show photo identification before a participant is released.
5. Volunteers shall refuse to release a participant to any person, whether related or unrelated to the youth, who has not been authorized, in writing, by the parent or guardian to receive the youth.
6. Under no circumstances may a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. transport a program participant in their personal vehicle unless they have been identified by the parent as an authorized person.
7. Program participants may sign themselves in and out with parent/guardian authorization.
