

July 20-26, week three: Lectio Visual questions:

Questions 1st viewing:

Add words that describe your reaction...just not what you saw on the video, but what you felt that surprised you. As you are paused, write any last-minute ideas/images floating through your mind.

Questions: 2nd viewing:

Circle three of the most important words/ sentences you wrote down.

What theme do you think this video is trying to convey?

Where is The Creator in this video?

What was it like for you to listen in silence without visual words or auditory prompts to guide your thinking?

What would you title this video?

What is the major thing you wish to take away for yourself from this Lectio Visual experience?
