

Is the coronavirus affecting your nonprofit organization (NPO)? NPOs that rely on fundraising revenue from annual galas and events are being tasked with finding a solution to raise money, share their mission and foster community during this trying time for our country and the world.

The VirtualUnGala Solution

VirtualUnGala (VirtualUnGala.com) from JohnnyBravoEntertainment has executed virtual events since 2018 and can continue your fundraising efforts while social distancing is our current norm. Solutions at your fingertips, including: events streamed live to your audience, mobile bidding, A/V and production crew, venues, professional MC and licensed auctioneer to keep engagement to share your mission and increase donor dollars.

VirtualUnGala Offers:

- Live-stream of your event for up to 350 guests
- Branded live-stream page
- Your speakers, gala chairs, leadership team and celebrity guests, in-studio
- Audio/visual crew and production team
- Professional MC to guide event
- Licensed auctioneer to capture every donor dollar
- Mobile bidding platform (raffle, silent auction, live auction, raise-the-paddle)
- Catered meals for preferred donors and sponsors to their home/watch site
- Live auction displayed split-screen (auctioneer and auction item)

Benefits of a VirtualUnGala:

- Meet your fundraising goals
- Offer online event solutions instead of in-person events
- Honor CDC and WHO recommendations of social distancing
- Stay engaged with donors and audiences
- Reach new audiences and next-generation donors through technology

Technology to Create Connections:

- Cameras with live-operators to capture every moment
- Clear, crisp audio so your message is heard
- Soundscapes to create ambiance through in-person “audience” and music
- Split-screen capabilities
- LED wall and green screen options
