COMBINED QUILT SHOW UPDATE -

Barbara reminded us of the new combined quilt show group being formed: so far, the committed guilds are Conejo Guild, Simi Valley Guild, Ventura Modern Guild & Valley Modern guild.

Santa Barbara (as we are) is still considering. The exact name has not been established but it is expected that that will be determined by the end of February. This group has already booked the Ventura Fairground for sometime in May 2021. They are securing 2 pavilions (we only rent one). There will be a guaranteed spot for each guild member to display at least one quilt (regardless of quilt guild size). Thelma Atkinson said she feels that if we join this group we will be working less (because the work is shared) & we will have the opportunity to form relationships with other guilds. There will be a public meeting about this new guild at the Dudley House sometime soon. All questions & concerns can be talked about then.

Our guild will be voting on whether we choose to join or not in May 2020. If we do join & are not happy we do not have to continue.
