ABOUT MAX

The Metro Atlanta eXchange for Workforce Solutions (MAX) was launched in December 2014 by a team of regional leaders who recognized that increased collaboration across the Atlanta region's workforce development arena empowers all stakeholders to positively influence each other's efforts and realize greater collective impacts through stronger cohesiveness. MAX has since served as a convener and connector for the Atlanta region's workforce development community, pulling together all the players across the broad workforce system together in one place and on a regular basis. Indeed, MAX has developed into a dynamic network to serve and connect workforce developers.

Today, the MAX network includes more than 1,500 workforce developers representing service providers, educational entities, intermediaries, employers and funders. MAX is a catalyst for empowering and aligning workforce development efforts to meet the needs that employers have for a ready workforce. In January 2021, MAX begins an exciting transformation to become metro Atlanta's premiere professional membership association for workforce developers.

MAX NETWORK

MAX PROVIDER COUNCIL

The MAX Provider Council is an advisory council – comprised of nonprofit and community-based organization workforce leaders – that works to help align MAX strategies and actions with the needs and operations of workforce service providers. The Provider Council’s work is essential in helping MAX achieve its mission of strengthening connections, collaborations, and practices among workforce developers. The council also provides a platform for information sharing and collaboration.

MAX DATA COUNCIL

The MAX Data Council is an advisory council – comprised of workforce data experts and researchers – that works to better inform local and state policy makers and practitioners through MAX. The Data Council works to: amalgamate various data sources into a more comprehensive picture of the region with the intention of leading to better outcomes for job seekers and employers; create a peer learning network to empower and enhance the skill sets of research/data staff within entities; and identify opportunities for the more efficient use of data among providers. The council also provides a platform for information sharing and collaboration.

MAX LEADERSHIP NETWORK

The MAX Leadership Network is comprised of senior workforce leaders who convene regularly to strengthen our collective capacity as workforce developers to meet the needs that employers have for a ready workforce. The Leadership Network works to help network members: learn more about who is doing what, where, and for whom; explore common issues and opportunities, share ideas and best practices for building solutions; make new connections and catalyze partnerships; and keep each other updated and informed on ways we can help each other.
