Domaine des Hâtes
Chablis

Chablis 2017

This wine's crab apple notes and saline acidity make it aggressively dry, needing air to round its edges and bring up the mellow richness of the fruit. Its power gains focus, yielding a savory, stony Chablis with smoky notes of oranges. Decant it for roasted sweetbreads.

Chablis Les Châtillons 2017

The 2017 les Châtillons is really a lovely wine, with the nervosité of the 2017 vintage beautifully synthesized to the limestone character of these parcels. The bouquet offers up a bright and youthful blend of lemon, green apple, a superb base of chalky minerality, spring flowers and a bit of citrus zest. On the palate the wine is fullish, focused and racy, with good mid-palate depth, excellent mineral drive and a long, zesty and complex finish.

Chablis 1er Cru L'Homme Mort 2017

[F]rom a 2.7-acre parcel where the vines average 30 years of age, farmed to capture the sparkling acidity and spring meadow scents of Queen Anne's lace that drive this wine. It's quietly rich, like a debutante turned flower child, hiding its pedigree behind a moment of wild excitement.
