SIGNATORY AGREEMENT

My company hereby applies for membership in the American Moving & Storage Association. I agree:

- That my company will make its best efforts to comply with the applicable regulations of the FMCSA and the STB relating to interstate household goods transportation;
- I have read and agree to abide by the AMSA Code of Ethics. I understand that failure to adhere to these ethics will be grounds for removal from AMSA membership through the procedures in place for termination;
- To use/display any AMSA Logo in a professional manner, to take all reasonable measures to keep the use of any copyrighted AMSA Logo restricted to only recognized AMSA members, and that my company's AMSA membership may be forfeited upon being duly notified by the AMSA of its failure to observe the Code of Ethics, the FMCSA/STB consumer regulations and/or upon a showing of a demonstrated pattern of consumer abuse;
- To the terms and conditions of the AMSA By-Laws, including any amendments thereto, and to the payment of annual membership fees as set forth in the articles therein. This Agreement shall continue in full force and effect during the period of the Signatory Party's compliance with the terms of the Agreement, including any Amendments thereto as may be lawfully applied;
- I understand and agree that any materially false or misleading information provided in this Membership Application is grounds for denial of membership or for immediate termination of membership and all corresponding privileges without any pro rata refund of any monies already paid to AMSA;
- I understand and agree that my Application for Membership may not be accepted, and that if accepted my company's membership will be accepted on a provisional basis for a period of 18 months. I further understand and agree that my company is not eligible for ProMover Certification until we have been a member in good standing for a minimum of 18 continuous months;
- I understand and agree that any subsequent Application for ProMover Certification must be accompanied by two letters of reference from either other current AMSA ProMover members or from State Moving Associations that are recognized by the AMSA;
- As part of the review process and as evidenced by my signature below, I hereby agree that AMSA, or its duly designated Third Party Service Provider, is AUTHORIZED to determine 1) if any company officers, owners or majority stockholders have ever been convicted of a felony involving consumer protection regulations or the operation of a motor carrier, and 2) the general reputation of my company with consumers, as reported by organizations such as the Better Business Bureau (BBB). This information may be cause for my AMSA membership to be declined or terminated under the procedures specified in the AMSA By-Laws. I also UNDERSTAND that my application for membership is subject to a one-time processing fee as shown below; I further UNDERSTAND that this fee is not refundable in the event that my application for membership is declined as described above.

AMSA CODE OF ETHICS

We, the members of the American Moving & Storage Association, stand united in our sincere beliefs that honest, ethical, efficient and quality services to the public are the ultimate goals of this organization. And, we who are engaged in the transporting and storage of household goods, pledge ourselves to uphold and advance the following ideas and principles:

- To consistently offer and provide the most efficient and reliable moving and storage services available, while adhering strictly to a policy of truth, honesty, integrity and fairness in all business transactions
- To consistently strive for improvement in all facets of industry operations and to bind ourselves to the individual and collective effort of seeking and effectuating such improvement
- To be conscious and considerate of consumer needs and to continually promote the progress, fraternity, education and dignity of our industry so that the public will be better served
- To promote the elimination of fraud, deceit, misrepresentation and unethical practices within the industry and to engage in formal disciplinary review of any and all members involved in such practices
- To afford all members and applicants due process in the administration of association affairs, to promote competitive practices and to eliminate unlawful restraint of trade within the industry
- To maintain the highest concern for the health, welfare and safety of our employees, while recognizing their needs as both human beings and individuals
- To faithfully fulfill all obligations of membership, including the timely payment of all charges for membership affiliation and services
- To protect free enterprise in a democratic society and to foster the commercial viability of the small business component of our industry
