

Date: 5th December, 2020

Class: 4th

Subject: English

Book: Open Door English 4

Unit: 17

Topic: Kids' Scene Part 1

Activity: T.B, Exercise page#139 to 140

Homework: Page#140, do C3 and C5.

Student Textbook 4

B. Comprehension

1 Circle the correct words.

a) The headline title subject of the magazine is Kids' Scene.

b) The magazine contains fictional stories fairy stories news stories.

c) A reporter is someone who reads writes sells a news report.

d) SCIENCE COMES ALIVE is a headphone headache headline.

e) It is in the present past future tense.

f) Submersible Submarine is a headlight subheading superheading.

2 Complete the sentences in your notebooks in your own words.

a) The reporters for Kids' Scene were the children in Class 4Q.

b) The children kept calm in the playground because they didn't want to ... frighten the baby Pigeon

c) They fed the pigeon with a bit of banana, rice, banana

d) At the Science Gallery, Mishal learned about ...

e) She generated electricity herself, using her own hands

f) Before the races, all the children did ...

g) The two winners of the 100 metres were ...

h) In Kids' Scene, the apostrophe is after s because ... it is written by children which is plural so

3 Match these sentences to the headlines, e.g. a. 2.

a) Only one reporter went on this visit. 2

b) Class 4Q were all at school. 1

c) All of Class 4Q tried their best. 3

d) Children learned how things work. 2

e) Children competed with each other. 3

f) Children learned to be kind. 1

1. GIRL CATCHES BIRD
2. SCIENCE COMES ALIVE
3. SPORTING SUCCESS

4 What do you think? Tell a classmate.

a) Which of the three articles did you find most interesting? Why?

b) What do you know about the reporters from their reports?

139

C. Word Reading and Spelling

Remember: In Latin, sub means under, so a *sub*heading goes under a main heading or headline. In Latin, super means above or extra, so a *super*visor is someone who works above other workers.

1 Read and discuss the spellings, meanings, and pronunciation.

a) sub	b) super	c) Ordinal numbers
submarine	supervisor	first	1st	ninth 9th
submerge	superstore	second	2nd	twelfth 12th
subheading	superstar	third	3rd	twentieth 20th
subtract	super-brilliant	fifth	5th	twenty-second 22nd

2 5-minute challenge! Find and underline words from Exercise 1 in the reading text. Be careful! They are not all there.

3 Write the words from Columns a and b in alphabetical order.

Example: a) subheading, ...

4 Complete the sentences with the words from Exercise 1.

- a) A superstore is a very big shop that sells many different things.
- b) A submarine is a craft that can go under water.
- c) When you push things under water, you submerge them.
- d) A very famous film star is often called a superstar.
- e) When you subtract two from five, the answer is three.
- f) Someone who is in charge of other workers is a supervisor.
- g) A subheading goes under a heading or headline.

5 Write the circled dates from the calendar.

Example: a) Wednesday 3rd August

August 2016

S	M	T	W	T	F	S
	1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30	31			