

- A computer program that are needed for running or operating computer.
- A program is a sequence of step by step instructions to perform a practical task.
- Example of program in Kturtle:
 - Forward 30
 - Turnright 90
 - Forward 50
 - Turnleft 20

Classification of software

Software system

- System software refers to programs designed to control the operation of a computer system.
- It helps to run application software.
- Further classification:
 - Operation system
 - Interpreter
 - Compiler
 - Drivers
 - Assembler