A Few Words From The East

Greetings Brethren,

As we head into the last month of 2017, I would like to thank you for the opportunity and privilege of serving you as Worshipful Master. The journey has enriched me and I am better for the experience.

The Election and Installation of Officers will be featured during our Stated meeting this month. The anticipated slate is Br. Kevin M. Baker as W.M., Br. Russell B. Combs, P.M. as S.W. and Br. Joseph H. Cain, Jr., P.M. as J.W..

In closing, I would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to all the Officers and Brethren who assisted me throughout the year with special recognition to Br. James Clancy's tireless work. I ask in 2018 you come out and show your support for our incoming Officers as they endeavor to continue the good work of St. Alban Lodge No. 529. God bless and may you all have a Healthy and Prosperous New Year.

Fraternally yours,

Worshipful Master

Best wishes to all celebrating their Masonic Birthday!

Freemasonry has endured not because of its antiquity, its influence, or its social standing, but because there have been so many who have lived it. The effectiveness of Masonic teachings will always be the measure by which the outside world judges Freemasonry; the proof of Freemasonry is in our deeds and it is in our deeds that Freemasonry is made known to non-Masons. The only way that the Craft can be judged is by its product. The prestige of Freemasonry lies squarely on the shoulders of each of us.

We cannot practice our Freemasonry until we have first learned to know it. Once we have learned to know it, we will clearly see that there is not one of our modern perplexities but what can be solved by a faithful application of Masonic principles and precepts.

Worshipful Master's Guidelines for Dinner Reservations

Brethren, we contract with the caterer to provide for a certain number of dinners based on the figure provided by our Stewards. This figure comes from the number of members who sign up by phone or E-mail each month. We owe and must pay the caterer for the contracted figure regardless of whether you show up to eat or not. Please support our Lodge effort to control costs by understanding rules concerning dinner reservations.

☐ Reservations must be made no later than ten days before the Stated Meeting date. No exceptions.

☐ If you reserve and do not show up without cancelling in advance, you are liable for the cost of the meal, and will be billed accordingly.

Call Brother Joseph Fletcher, Jr. P.M. to make or cancel reservations. If you are a no-show and do not pay, then we will not accept your reservations for future months until the cost is recovered. Remember, when you reserve, we are charged whether you attend or not.
