Junior Program Policies

Makeups: Students are permitted to make up missed classes in other days at the level currently enrolled with prior approval and as long as they are currently enrolled in programming. Makeups can only be used for junior programming clinics. We will do our best to accomodate makeup requests but we cannot guarantee them. We do not offer refunds for missed tennis classes. If you know of a date that your child will not be able to attend class, please email aplus@aplustennisva.net so that we can look for a makeup opportunity. Please note that students are supervised only while on court during class and are not supervised off court, before or after the class.

If you have questions, please contact us at 703-250-1299 or aplus@aplustennisva.net.

CLASS DESCRIPTION

EARLY DEVELOPMENT CLASSES

FUNDamental Red

Using the United States Tennis Association approved protocol, this class is designed for the 8 years and under age group, utilizing a 36' court and low compression balls. The goal of the class is to introduce and develop tennis related athletic skills and proper tennis groundstrokes with an emphasis on having fun.

FUNDamental Red II ("Rally Red")

In this class, students will also learn to start and maintain rallies with groundstrokes. Emphasis on technique, motor development, stroke production and movement between shots. Students will learn our Moving, Adjusting, Positioning (MAP) system in order to prepare to play tennis at a higher level.

FUNDamental Yellow

Students older than 12 learning how to play tennis, will fit nicely in this class. Using regular balls on a full-size court, the goal of this entry level class is to quickly develop rally skills using our MAP system.

The final decision for class placement will be made by the Tennis Director
