

HGIn to Africa

Our team, coupled with our wealth of knowledge on and experience in Africa-related research and analysis distinguish us as thought leaders in Africa-focused intelligence. HG consultants spread across the African continent and abroad in to Europe and the Middle East allowing us to move and connect within the seams of conflict. HGI combines in-country presence and expertise with a holistic understanding of our local and international clientele. By engaging a regional network that is second to none we enable both public and private entities to make informed and calculated decisions in and on Africa through superior insight into the continent's political, economic, financial and social affairs.
