

Star of Hope Foundation Seeks Public Input

August 9, 2019

The Star of Hope Foundation is hosting four community meetings over the next four months. These meetings, facilitated by Rockland resident Carole Martin, will gain input from Vinalhaven residents (both year-round and seasonal) about how the Foundation can best address local community's hopes. In addition to these meetings, the Star of Hope Foundation will implement a community survey in September as a way to gain additional ideas about the opportunity before us.

Following up on the May 20th Selectman's meeting, the Star of Hope Foundation is seeking community input on a variety of mission goals around community engagement, real estate development, art, and programs while observing Robert Indiana's wishes and honoring his legacy.

The meetings are open to the public and will be held at the Vinalhaven Town Office from 5:30 – 7:00 p.m.
