UFO LANDS IN NIAGARA!

Thousands Mesmerized As Aliens Are Beamed Into Mother Ship...

In a rare occurrence, matched only by the imagination of Jules Verne, a craft resembling a saucer-shaped object has landed in Niagara Falls, Canada. Preliminary reports state that the object had been sighted in the skies over the Honeymoon City, apparently hovering and flashing a myriad of lights and finally making a descent on an abandoned piece of land owned by Mr. Henry DiCienzo, later interviewed in this report.

Onlookers couldn't believe their eyes and in just a short time, thousands of curious spectators converged on the area in an attempt to make contact with the extraterrestrials. However, all attempts to enter the spacecraft were thwarted by the seemingly harmless but powerful force field implemented by these aliens, the likes never before experienced on this planet. Needless to say, it had been an interesting morning.

By later that afternoon, the Canadian and U.S. Armies, along with NATO Forces, and local law enforcement were on hand to keep control of the situation. But this did not stop the crowds nor this reporter from getting a clear view of the upcoming events.

At precisely 6:06 EST, in an astonishing turn of events, a message was communicated from the craft

"...several attempts were made to breach the force field, but to no avail."

- property owner, Henry DiCienzo was summoned to the scene and allowed to pass through the force field, alone, and board the craft. In a later interview Mr. DiCienzo stated that he had a hard time believing he had been chosen among all earthlings to first greet the aliens. For hours the crowd kept vigil as night fell upon them, patiently awaiting the return of this privileged being... the question in everyone's mind being, "What news or message would be forthcoming?" "what secrets would be learned?" "Is Henry still alive?"

Then it happened! Much to the amazement of this writer and all who watched, a brilliant iridescent flash of light prevailed in the sky; then six smaller smaller laser-like beams slowly ascended into the air only to be met by another craft of huge proportions, several times larger than the earth-bound vehicle. This so called "super ship" hovered above, absorbing the streams of that were being transmitted from below.

Then - as quickly as it had come - it sped off, leaving the original spacecraft in a light fog and covered with mist from its massive energy beams. The answers to our questions were soon realized when Henry returned to speak with the crowd. It seems, as per our report, the aliens were running low on fuel (a mineral available only on another planet), were in need of repairs and were looking for a permanent landing area. It appears these aliens have two directives, reported the only humans to have contact with them. The first is to seek out and observe all planets in the universe and, secondly, to share the knowledge they gain with the rest of the universe. However, abandoning their spaceship was not in their original plans. Therefore, they requested a meeting with the owner of the property on which they landed to obtain permission to leave the spacecraft there until they returned to the planet of their origin and obtain repair parts. In consulting with the owner, Henry DiCienzo, it was disclosed that he was preparing to commence construction of a restaurant/drive-in on this very piece of land. It was at this time that the aliens suggested he use the saucer craft for this purpose, as they could not return for seven platonies (about 900 years) to repair the ship. At this time, they then proceeded to share with Henry their universal secrets and recipes for food that's out of this world, as a token of their appreciation.

ALIEN STARSHIP BOMBED ATLANTIS TO SMITHERINES!

Mystery of the Lost Continent Solved!
The lost continent of Atlantis was vaporized in a horrifying nuclear attack by aliens who wanted to destroy all evidence of their landing on Earth!

That's the shocking theory offered by a top Russian astrophysicist to explain the sudden and mysterious disappearance of the ancient city state more than 40,000 years ago. A radioactive cloud unleashed after nuclear missiles were launched from starships blanketed the earth in a deadly shroud that wiped out many species of prehistoric animals, according to Dr. Anatoly Rubenis. The woolly mammoth, the saber-toothed cat and the giant sloth were among the creatures which fell victim to the deadly exposure, the St. Petersburg professor says. "Atlantis had most likely been an advanced culture because the aliens had selected it for a space outpost and had trained its human inhabitants in the sophisticated sciences and arts," Rubenis contended in a recent article on his theory. "But the attack literally bombed mankind back into the stone age. It took centuries for man to begin the climb back to even the most primitive of social systems. Rubenis' revolutionary ideas are based on 27 years of research into the origin and evolution of the planets in the solar systems. The scientist said his studies reveal normal developmental patterns followed by most planets, but strangely altered in Earth's history. A cataclysmic and profound change in the Earth's environment more than 40,000 years ago coincides with the disappearance of an entire continent once located in the south Atlantic, Rubenis says. Levels of radiation rose alarmingly in one brief period at that time, indicating what may have been a powerful nuclear event. While there is no way of knowing precisely what occurred on Earth at that time, my theory answers many questions raised by archeologists, geologists and paleontologists," Rubenis said. "What's more, there is every indication that space aliens in fact do visit Earth from time to time and have the capability of landing and establishing bases. "I believe that eons ago, alien starships colonized here, mingling with earthlings and helping them. The colony has survived in mythology as the famed continent of Atlantis, a wondrous society that was extremely advanced for its time. Mythology also indicates that Atlantis disappeared suddenly and catastrophically, leaving no trace." Rubenis theorizes that the aliens became alarmed by their Earth experience - perhaps when colonists bred with earthlings and their allegiance to the mother planet was weakened. A decision was made to evacuate the colony and destroy all traces of alien presence on Earth. "The continent was pulverized by powerful nuclear weapons - literally smashed to atoms," Rubenis said. "There wasn't anything left over but the empty ocean."

STARSHIP LANDS ON AIRCRAFT CARRIER!

U.S. officials will neither confirm nor deny that four space aliens are in custody after landing their huge spaceship on the flight deck of a U.S. Navy aircraft carrier.

Photo: Unknown

Photos taken of the saucer-shaped ship shortly after it landed have been ruled confidential. The craft reportedly has been examined by aeronautical and weapons experts in Florida while the CIA interrogates the aliens at an undisclosed location.

The President will have nothing to say at this time but one highly-placed CIA source, who spoke on the condition she would not be identified, gave this account of the incredible events that occurred in the western Pacific the morning of August 12th. For security reasons she declined to confirm the carrier's identity or the exact location of the landing, but said the President has been told the ship was the USS Nimitz.

"The UFO first showed up as a small blip on the car-

...we have no idea where they came from or why they are here. They don't appear to be life threatening."

rier's radar screen shortly after 8:00 a.m. and the ship's crew was put on alert. When efforts to contact the craft by radio failed, fighter planes were launched to intercept it," she reported.

"The pilots had orders to shoot it down if it refused to land on the flight deck as ordered," she said. Fortunately, the UFO was escorted back to the carrier where it sent electrical charges to the flight deck before landing.

The heavily armed crew surrounded the spacecraft, which was described as almost half as long as a football field and about forty feet high. "No one knew what to expect. There had been absolutely no radio contact with the spaceship from the first moment it appeared on the screen," the source said. Four alien life-forms found on board were immediately flown to a nearby military base and later to an undisclosed location near Washington, D.C.

"The alien beings are not human in any mental or physical way, but appear to exist in clear glass capsules filled with liquid," stated the CIA source. "To my knowledge, they have said nothing to our intelligence experts. We have no idea where they came from or why they are here," she said. "They don't appear to be threatening in any way. We don't know whether they were gathering intelligence about us or simply wandered into our airspace by mistake."

According to a report given to the President under the code name "Project Phobos," the UFO was taken to the NASA Space Center.

NASA officials won't admit the spaceship is at the Cape, but a top German metallurgist, Dr. Hayden Braun, says the outer shell of the ship shows traces of a least four metals not found on Earth.

"The craft is constructed of a metallic substance far advanced to anything I have ever seen," Dr. Braun said. "Clearly the UFO had enough advanced weaponry to shoot those fighter planes out of the sky in a matter of seconds, but for some unexplained reason, the crew allowed themselves to be captured."

The President, who laughed off reports last year that said he had met secretly with a space alien, is not laughing this time.

"He is going to have to inform the American people about this incident sooner or later," said a top Republican congressman. "The American people have a right to know if alien ships are invading our air space," he added.

"Our national security hasn't been threatened as far as we know, but I want to hear that personally."

UFO'S AREN'T SPACESHIPS... THEY'RE LIVING CREATURES

Many UFO'S are actually living creatures from outer space, say experts who reveal that Prince Charles great-uncle and mentor, Lord Louis Mountbatten, shared this belief.

"Lord Mountbatten proposed way back in 1952 that UFO's are alive," said UFO investigator, Timothy Good. "He proposed that UFO's are inhabitants of other planets rather than mere nuts and bolts spacecraft." Many UFO cases support this astonishing theory.

"There are numerous reports of UFO's moving as though they were creatures rather than space vehicles; such as moving along the ground and entering into homes," Good went on to say.

"In one 1973 case, a UFO entered a bedroom in Logrono, Spain. The resident, Javier Bosque, lay terror-stricken as he watched it maneuvering around his bed."

Moreover, many descriptions of UFO's down through history describe living creatures - such as in the form of dragons and serpents - moving through the skies. These entities from deep space may have the advanced ability to transform themselves into various shapes, making themselves look like animals in the past, and solid spacecraft in modern times.

"They are a unique life-form with highly advanced intelligence," states Mr. Good.

"Living UFO's may have evolved on other planets, or from cosmic dust and gas in deep space, said Hayden Hewes, executive director of the International UFO Bureau. "These sky creatures may even be living, thinking pure energy!" Mr. Hews said,

"Most assuredly, many UFO's are actually living creatures — and, undoubtedly, are among the universe's oldest beings."
