

Book of Ruth

DAY SIX QUESTIONS

“The Beginning of Hope”

1. Naomi is beginning to hope again. Read Lamentations 3:22-24. Why does the author hope in the Lord?
2. God’s love is steadfast (firmly fixed in place; not subject to change) and never ending. Great (without measure) is His faithfulness. “The Lord is my portion” can be stated “The Lord is my inheritance”. If God is our inheritance, then we have an eternal inheritance. Re-read Lamentations 3:22-24. Where does the author place his hope?
3. Read Ephesians 1:15-19. What hope has He called us to? What is the inheritance of the saints?
4. Read Romans 8:18-25 Paul wrote these words while in prison, counting the sufferings that he was daily enduring not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed. Are you hoping for what you have not seen?
5. Read 2 Corinthians 5:7 What does it mean to walk by faith and not by sight?
6. Read 1 Timothy 4:10. Our hope is not in vain; we know that He will fulfill His promises. He is the living God, not a manmade idol, and we know that, because He is the living God, we can trust Him when He promises us life both present and future, when we will be like Him.
