

New Mexico Academic Librarian of the Year Award Nomination Form

The purpose of this award is to recognize the contributions of a member of NMCAL who has demonstrated significant accomplishments in academic librarianship. Special consideration will be given to accomplishments in the nominee's home library or accomplishments which directly benefit NMCAL and its members.

Only professional librarians at NMCAL libraries can make nominations. The nominee must work at a library that is a current member of NMCAL. No self-nominations will be accepted.

Nominations must contain a precise description (one page maximum) of the nominee's achievements with consideration to one or more of the following categories:

- ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN ACADEMIC LIBRARY WORK
Describe the nature and quality of the nominee's academic library work, noting special achievements, innovation, and initiative.
- IMPACT OF WORK
Describe the effect of the nominee's work on her or his institution and the extent of its influence beyond the institution.
- SERVICE TO THE PROFESSION
Describe the nominee's service to professional groups, including, but not limited to NMCAL.
- VISIBILITY AND RECOGNITION OF WORK
Describe the extent to which colleagues, administration, and library users recognize the nominee's achievements.
- MAJOR CURRENT UNDERTAKINGS
Describe work and other activities in which the nominee is currently engaged, which indicate career growth and demonstrate significant potential.
