The Library Laws of New Mexico last published in 1990 has been revised and updated. You can access an electronic version of this publication by going to <http://www.stlib.state.nm.us/> then click on State Depository Programs. You will also be able to access this publication via the NMCAL Website.

2004 GO Bonds: NMSU VP for Finance communications with Bond Counsel for the State indicate the bonds will be sold on or about March 1 of this year with the funds available in May or June.

NMCAL Information Updates Archives: You can go to the NMCAL website to access all NMCAL Information Updates for August 4, 2004, August 12, 2004, September 13, 2004, and November 9, 2004. <http://lib.nmsu.edu/nmcaldpublications.html>

All academic libraries in New Mexico should be working on electronically submitting their 2004 Academic Library Survey data. If you could make a copy of what you are electronically submitting and send it to Elizabeth A. Titus, University Library, MSC 3475, New Mexico State University, P.O. Box 30006, Las Cruces, NM 88003-8006 it would be appreciated. I can then start working on the statistics report for academic libraries in New Mexico. Our in-state report gets you access to state data earlier than the ALS Peer Comparison Tool provides.
