ZADANKAI – TOPICS AND MODERATORS

DR. ARTHUR ALEXANDER – JAPAN'S ECONOMIC RECOVERY AFTER THE TOHOKU EARTHQUAKE/TSUNAMI & NUCLEAR MELTDOWN

Dr. Arthur Alexander is adjunct professor on Japan at Georgetown University and at the Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies. He was president of the Japan Economic Institute in Washington, DC from 1990 to 2000. His other experience includes 22 years at the Rand Corp. and consulting to industry and government. His most recent books on the Japanese economy: The Arc of Japan's Economic Development, Routledge, 2007; and In the Shadow of the Miracle, Lexington Books, 2002. Dr. Alexander received an award from the Japanese Foreign Ministry for "distinguished service" promoting understanding of Japan. Dr. Alexander grew up in Carbondale, Pennsylvania, graduated from MIT, served in the U.S. Army, worked for the IBM Corp. as a systems analyst, received a M.Sc. degree in economics from the London School of Economics, and a Ph.D. in economics from the Johns Hopkins University. Dr. Alexander was a research associate at the International Institute for Strategic Studies in London and was a member of the U.S. Army Science Board for five years.

MR. TORKEL PATTERSON – JAPANESE EFFORTS TO ACHIEVE HIGH-SPEED RAIL IN AMERICA – IS IT REALLY POSSIBLE?

Mr. Torkel Patterson is President of U.S.-Japan MAGLEV, LLC, which has partnered with Central Japan Railway Company's (JRC) to market and deploy JRC Superconducting MAGLEV (SCMAGLEV) systems and technology to selected international markets, including the United States. Mr. Patterson previously served for more than six years with Raytheon Company, including more than four years as President of Raytheon International Inc.'s Business Development Division. Mr. Patterson also served in a variety of posts in the U.S. Government in three administrations, including Special Assistant to the President for Asia, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for South Asia, and Senior Country Director for Japan in the Office of the Secretary of Defense. Mr. Patterson is a member of the Board of Governors of Pacific Forum CSIS; is a distinguished graduate of the United States Naval Academy; and was an Olmsted Scholar at the University of Tsukuba in Ibaraki, Japan.

MR. SHIRO & MRS. MELANIE SHINTAKU – UNDERSTANDING JAPANESE CULTURE THROUGH THE TEACHINGS OF SHINTOISM

Mr. & Mrs. Shintaku are currently the local representatives for the International Shinto Foundation (ISF), as the representatives of ISF, they have held readings on Nihon Shoki, hosted Shichigosan (children's events), and a course in traditional tea ceremony.

Mr. Shintaku is studying to become a Shinto priest, and has offered Shinto prayers at interfaith events following the March 11 events in Japan. He has devoted his life to learning and teaching Japanese martial arts for approximately 40 years, and founded the art of Ten Shin Ichi Ryu™, which means "heaven's mind, one flow". Ten Shin Ichi Ryu focuses on the mental aspects often neglected in martial arts study along with energy flow, natural human reactions and non-aggressive techniques.

Mrs. Shintaku has studied Asian arts and culture for the past twenty years and focuses primarily on Japanese and Tibetan cultures. She was the first westerner to study Mikagura (Sacred Shinto Dance) at Ise Shrine, and studied Nihon Buyo for eight years. Mrs. Shintaku participated in the United Nations NGO meetings on interfaith dialogue, and arranged lectures and performances for visiting Shinto priests. Mrs. Shintaku holds a Third Degree Black Belt in Ten Shin Ichi Ryu, and is an instructor for Women's self-defense classes.
