X PF is dedicated to promoting and supporting the sport of Parkour, consistent with the obligations and responsibilities to be assumed by a national sports governing organization, while striving to guarantee that Parkour continues to provide the unique characteristics important to the sport’s participants, and maintaining the integrity and authenticity of Parkour as a sport, a passion, an art form and a lifestyle

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

Article 1

Name and Purpose

Section # 1 Name

The organization shall operate under the name of the X Parkour Federation (dba. X Parkour i.e, “ X P ”). The standard formal abbreviated form will be the “X PF”. The standard-use abbreviation will be “ X P ”. The business will be a not-for-profit, non-governmental and unaffiliated sports organization established for the purpose of managing, directing, promoting, organizing and assisting in every way, the many activities and disciplines associated with Parkour world-wide.

The business operation will be in a location identified by the X PF’s President. All the membership information as well as the business records and financial accounts shall be located at the principle offices, so designated by the President. There will be other officers elected by the membership. The actual memberships will be constituted by the diverse populations of Parkour enthusiasts, participants and supporters, nation-wide. Members will be divided into numerous categories in order to best serve and represent the various groups that are involved with Parkour.

This is a member-driven and member-directed organization and it is established for these individuals on those premises. The bylaws that govern the organization will allow for the necessary changes and the flexibility to guarantee that the membership is serviced at the highest level. It is the intent that this document be a guideline to provide both direction for governance and the fundamental structure to conduct the various activities of the Parkour businesses.

Section # 2 Purpose

The purpose of the organization shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

1. To perpetuate and improve Parkour in the X and it’s territories
2. To encourage the growth and development of Parkour programs and offerings to the X ’s youth.
3. To encourage the creation of national teams for the purpose of representation of these teams in worldwide competition.
4. To coordinate efforts with all other agencies promoting Parkour by making known its collective opinions through its elected officials and executives in the forums that are available through world sport.
5. To work with companies, manufacturers, agencies and all other commercial and public entities that have the ability to assist in the growth, development and promotion of Parkour
6. To give appropriate recognition for outstanding contributions to Parkour by groups, individuals and events

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

7. To provide coaches, teachers and educators tools for the research of trends, technology, ideas, issues and solutions to problems
8. To provide and create the resources and activities that allow the members the opportunities to discuss, enhance and evaluate changes in Parkour with implications at levels from beginner through International and Olympic caliber athletes
9. To communicate with and support the interest of new programs, events, organizations and commercial entities that may be interested in starting programs, activities and events in Parkour
10. To encourage and promote the good moral standards that are enhanced through the sports experience and through a sports education and to help steward that responsibility at all levels of Parkour participation.
11. To follow and promote the laws of national and international sports through the X Olympic Committee (X OC) (OR X PPORTS MINISTRY)and the International Olympic Committee (IOC) as they apply to the use of drugs, banned substances and other agents that destroy the integrity of sports participation and competition.
12. To create new events, properties, activities, publications, literature, materials, promotions and other such enhancements that will aid in the marketing, promotion and growth of Parkour
13. To establish rules and regulations for all the competitive events and programs under the jurisdiction of the X PF and to identify, train and educate the technical experts, officials and other required personnel to help guarantee fairness, accuracy of evaluation and objectivity in all of the Parkour competitive programs and events.

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

14. To establish the rules of eligibility, none of which will be more restrictive than those established by the X Olympic Committee and the sports International Federation. The X PF will work with the respective athlete groups and organizations to assist them in their understanding and knowledge of these eligibility rules and policies so that both the governance and enforcement will allow for maximum participation by Parkour athletes across the X .
15. To create, promote, disseminate and have jurisdiction over the rules of conduct for National (domestic / X) competitions including international contests and exchanges, the National Championships, the X Open, Junior Development and Junior Olympic Competitions and events, all qualifying events as well as the World and Olympic Team trials and selection events. Also, to assist in the process of the Olympic Games, working with the International Federation as well as the X Olympic Committee and / or any designated organization that is responsible for the conduct of the trials, selection events, and the Olympic Games, as assigned and awarded by the IOC
16. To protect and prevent the involvement of government or political organizations as well as religious groups or other groups, including commercial entities that may not have the best interests of the athletes, the events or Parkour
17. Other purposes, so designated and assigned by the President, Board of Directors or the general membership, in accordance with these Bylaws.

Article 2
Fiscal Year

Section # 1 Calendar Year / Fiscal Year

The X PF will function on a fiscal year that will begin on the first day of the New Year (January 1,) and will conclude on the last day of the calendar year, December 31. All basic programs and budgets will be based upon the fiscal year.

The reporting of annual budgets and other such matters will be done at the annual meeting and will be based upon the fiscal year.

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

Article 3 Membership

Membership will be aggressively encouraged. The success of the X PF will be determined by the nation-wide participation in our sport. Therefore, membership will not be restricted in any way and the X PF will assist all organizations, groups and individuals in every way possible to create the opportunities for participation.

Section # 1 Membership Categories

There shall be six (6) categories of membership. These are accompanied with the respective privileges and restrictions, as listed:

1. Athlete Members- Any individual who wishes to join as an athlete may do so by simply filling out and submitting the required membership information forms and sending his/her annual membership fee. Such fees shall not be restrictive or prohibitive to any eligible individuals.

2. Active Members - Any individual who is interested and falls into one of the membership categories, included in these by-laws, may be eligible to be an active member. Active members are included in the general workings of the X PF and will be invited to attend the annual convention of the X PF. Active members may represent industry, manufactures, sports organizations, athlete groups, coaches and teaching centers and other entities of representation, to be approved, identified and designated by the Board of Directors of the X PF.

Actual lists of groups / organizations that may designate an active member will be listed in "Appendix A" of this document. The Board of Director's of the X PF will vote annually to renew each organization's membership.

3. Associate Members- Associate members may join the X PF by submitting the appropriate membership application and sending in the required annual dues / fees. Associate members are included in mailing and basic X PF business. They do not have a voice or a vote in a X PF meeting unless so designated by the President of the Board of Directors. Associate members are allowed to attend the annual meetings of the Board and may be excused for closed or “executive sessions.”

4. Honorary Members -That any individual, based upon extraordinary accomplishments or contributions can be nominated for an Honorary Membership. Such recognition must be voted on by a two-thirds majority of the voting membership of the Board of Director’s of the X . Nominations may be made by the Board of Directors, by any athlete member or any national organization recognized by the X PF.

- 5 Industry / Business Members
This is a no-voice, no vote membership that may either be represented by an individual or by a company or business. These individuals / groups / representative(s) may attend the meetings, except when the Board of Director’s goes to “Executive Session”. They may be permitted to have a voice at such meetings, with either approval of the President, Board of Director’s or by a majority vote of the Board or respective committee. In order to attend meetings, they must be in “good standing” and current in all obligations and responsibilities to the X PF.

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

6. Public Sector Members –

The Board of Director will reserve the right to determine if an individual, not associated with the Parkour culture, would be invited to be a member of the Board of Directors. 1. Special Fees, Assessments and Gifts

The X PF is hereby empowered to levy upon its members or applicants for membership such special fees and assessments as may be necessary to maintain a sound financial condition, or as may be relevant to the respective service or penalty. All such additional fees will be presented to and must be approved by the Board of Directors of the X PF.

The X PF is also hereby empowered to accept gifts to its treasury, and said acceptance to be subject to approval by two-thirds majority of the Board of Director's members present at the first meeting following the offering of such gift(s). Members of the Board of Directors may submit such information as appropriate to the Ethics Committee to protect the integrity of the X PF and its image and good name.

Article 4
Business Year and Annual Meetings

Section # 1 Meetings of the Board of Directors and Committees

There shall be two meetings a year of the Board of Directors and one will be referred to as the Annual Meeting. There shall be at least two meetings per year of the Executive Committee, one of which that may take place during the annual meeting of the Board of Directors.

The annual meeting shall take place at a time and place so designated by the President with approval by the Executive Committee and notification of the entire membership of the X PF. This meeting will not be held in conjunction or associated with any major event or competition unless approved by the Board of Directors one-year prior s to the next scheduled annual meeting.

At this meeting, the summary of the business year will be reviewed and the new business year will commence with a start date the beginning of the new calendar year.

The election of new officers may take place at this meeting, in accordance with these by-laws and the new officers will immediately begin their respective terms.

Elections shall be held as the last item of “Old Business” at the annual meeting. Officers will assume the duties of their new offices at the conclusion of their respective elections.

The President or the Executive Committee has the right to call a special meeting with the approval of the Board of Directors by a two-thirds majority vote

Electronic and others meetings, can be called by the President or the Executive Committee, with a two-thirds majority vote of that group. Such meetings can be held by teleconference, electronic or other forms commensurate with the business that needs to be discussed.

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

The right to assemble and hold meetings shall not be denied or the ability to create any other type of meeting environments so long as the approval of the Executive Committee or Board of Directors is rightfully granted and that such a meeting in no way violates any other written rules in accordance with these by-laws or restricts any individuals or groups from gathering or participating.

Article 5
Board of Directors and Operating Procedures

Section # 1 Quorum

A quorum exists for the purpose of conducting a meeting of the Board of Directors whenever fifty percent (50%) of the Voting Directors are in attendance

Section # 2 The Composition of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall be composed of representatives from specific organizations and groups as well as selected individuals who have been asked to serve as a member of the Board. While the specific organizations and representative groups may change, in accordance with these Bylaws, the organizations that have been invited to serve as Members of the Board include the following:

Name of possible groups / organizations / companies other...

The composition of the Board of Directors shall be determined by the Board of Directors with the objective to be fair, equal and diverse representative of the respective Parkour populations. For this reason, new individuals or organizations may be added, as needed and determined by a vote of the current members of the Board of Directors.

While the Board seeks to be diverse in its representation, it also seeks to be manageable in its size and dimension. For this reason, at said time when the representation seems to be excessive, voting members may thus be grouped into categories to continue to provide representation of the numerous factions within Parkour but allowing the size of the board to be maintained at reasonable levels

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

Other organizations:

Upon review and evaluation, the Board of Director's may decide to add representatives from other organizations and / or special interest groups. Such groups may include, but not be limited to, the following:

The Ethics Committee will also have a X PF Legal representative and this individual shall be non-voting. Committee selection should be made from individuals from various areas of Parkour community who are respected, trusted and whose names are associated with the highest levels of integrity and moral worth.

Members shall fill out and complete an annual, or more frequent if deemed necessary by the President or Executive Committee, questionnaire that will ask and require a response to questions that will assist the Ethics Committee in evaluating the respective participations and involvements of the Executive Committee, paid staff and other directly involved individuals or groups who have associations or business relations with the X PF.

The Ethics Committee will have the responsibility to make recommendations to the President and the Executive Committee should they determine any areas of controversy or questionable activity either by a member, a group, a federation or an officer or paid staff of the X PF. Penalties and reprimands may include, but not be limited to, suspensions, removals and terminations of members, organizations or other associations.

The Ethics Committee will create and publish their own “Standards of Conduct”, based upon similar policies, guidelines and standards associated with international sport and ethical business practices. This document will be reviewed at regular intervals and will be sent to all member federations and athletic participants on an annual basis.

A member may be removed for cause and done so at the discretion of the President with the approval of the Executive Committee

Section # 7 Medical & Sport Safety Committee (Anti-Doping)

A Medical and Sport Safety Committee will be established to manage and undertake all those issues associated with athletes development and performance that may have medical, physical, psychological, safety and other related consequences. The Medical and Sport safety Committee will be requested to explore the various areas that may impact athletes and their safety and performance. This will include everything from design of equipment and competition specifications to the doping protocols associated with national and international events and competitions.

The Medical and Sport Safety Committee may also have the need to create and establish sub-committees in such areas as competition regulations, equipment specifications, Drug Testing Policies and Procedures, Safety standards and testing methods, competition medical procedures and staffing as well as the creation of printed materials and published policies and procedures.

The Medical and Sport safety Committee will be appointed by the President and will be approved by the Executive Committee. The Committee will have no less than seven (7) members with nation-wide representation. It is assumed that these assigned individuals will have the highest levels of credentials and will be representative of the United States leading experts in their respective fields. The Executive Committee will approve term of appointment

A member may be removed for cause and done so at the discretion of the President with the approval of the Executive Committee

Section #8 Audit Committee

The Audit Committee will be comprised of no less than three (3) members appointed by the President and approved by the Executive Committee. The Audit Committee's primary responsibility will be to review the financial reports prior to the annual meeting and report their findings to the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee will review contracts, revenues and expenditures and make sure that the business operation is both consistent with the corporate charter and that funds paid out for goods and services seems reasonable, fair and consistent with all good business practices of a not-for-profit, tax-exempt business.

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

Article 10
Grievance Procedure

Section # 1 Filing a Complaint – Any athlete or member of the X PF or a member organization of the X PF (the "Complainant"), and believes that himself/herself/itself o be aggrieved by any action of the corporation or one of its members, may file a complaint with the corporation (the " Complaint ”). To be considered for resolution through the corporation’s grievance procedure, the Complaint must:

- (a) be submitted in writing to the President of the corporation at the corporation’s principal place of business
- (b) be signed by the Complainant , and
- (c) include a concise statement of the complaint, the individual or organization responsible for the Complaint and the relief sought. If the Complaint occurs at an event or competition sanctioned by the corporation and the subject matter of the Complaint may be the subject of the protest procedures described in governing rules and policies, then those protest procedures must be exhausted prior the filing of a Complaint. Failure to exhaust those protection procedures results in this Grievance Procedure.

Section #2 Processing the Complaint - Upon receipt of a Complaint, the President will promptly:

- (a) Appoint one member, employee (including the President) or agent of the corporation to investigate the Complaint (the “Investigator”). The Investigator may not, however, be an individual who is directly involved in the occurrence that is the subject of the complaint.
- (b) Send the Complainant a notice acknowledging receipt of the Complaint.

That notice shall include:

1. The name of the Investigator
2. The date (not later than thirty (30) days from the date of the notice) by which the investigation will be concluded, and

31

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

3. a copy of these Grievance Procedures
- (c) Send to any individual organization whose conduct is the subject of the Complaint (the “Adverse Party”) a notice of the filing of the Complaint and a copy of the Complaint. No notice need be sent when the Adverse Party is the corporation. The notice shall include

An invitation to respond in writing to the Complaint

The name of the Investigator

The date by which the investigation will be completed, and

A copy of these Grievance procedures

Section # 3 Investigation of the Complaint – The investigation of the Complaint shall at least include a collection of all relevant documents and interviews (or attempted interviews) with the Complaint, the Adverse Party and other persons having information related directly to the subject matter of the Complaint.

Section # 4 Mediation of the Complaint - Within five (5) days of the end of the investigation, the Investigator shall prepare for the President of the corporation, a written summary of the investigation and a recommendation as to appropriate disposition of the Complaint. Without being limited by that recommendation, the President may then attempt to mediate the dispute to the satisfaction of the Parties. If mediation is successful, the agreed upon resolution must be recorded by the President in a form which includes the written acknowledgement by the Parties of that resolution.

Section # 5 Hearing Panel - If the President is unable to mediate the dispute to the satisfaction of the Parties within ten (10) days of receipt of the Investigator’s summary and recommendation, the President will report the fact to the Chairman of the Grievance Committee.

The chair of the Grievance Committee will then appoint three members of that Committee to serve as the panel that will hear the Grievance (the “Hearing Panel”). These appointments shall be subject to the following:

The chair of the Grievance Committee can appoint himself/herself to the Hearing Panel

32

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

The appointment of the three member Hearing Panel will include the designation of a Chair of the hearing Panel

Whenever possible, an athlete member of the Grievance Committee will be included on the Hearing Panel

The Chair of the Grievance Committee is responsible for confirming the availability of each appointee to serve on the Grievance Panel

Section # 6 Conduct of the Hearing – The Chair of the Hearing panel will select the time and the place for the grievance hearing so as to have the hearing occur at the earliest convenient date. The chair may, with the consent of the parties, conduct the hearing by conference call or other similar electronic means. The chair will communicate the information about the hearing schedule, along with the identity of the other two members of the Panel, to the Parties and the President. Prior to the hearing, the President will provide to the Hearing Panel copies of the Complaint, any written response previously submitted by the Adverse Party, documents collected by the Investigator and the Investigator’s summary. The Hearing Panel will not receive (and neither Part may introduce as evidence) the Investigator’s recommendation or any resolution of the dispute proposed by the president to any of the parties during the mediation. Not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the hearing, the Chair of the Hearing Panel shall cause to be sent to the Parties a written copy of the procedures to be followed at the hearing. Those procedures shall include the opportunity for each Party to be represented by counsel, to present oral or written evidence, to cross-examine witnesses and to present such factual or legal claims as desired. The hearing shall be open to the public and shall be recorded with a transcript made available to each Party at its expense.

All procedural and evidentiary decisions shall be made by the Chair and the Hearing Panel. Decisions about merits of the Complaint and the form of sanctions shall be made by majority vote of the Hearing Panel. The Hearing Panel shall report its decision on the merits in the form of written findings of fact and conclusions with ten (10) days of the conclusion of the hearing.

The decision shall be sent to the President. The decision of the Hearing Panel shall be final and binding on all parties, except to the extent that decision is modified on appeal in accordance with Section 10 of this Grievance Procedure.

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

Section # 7 Penalties – The Hearing Panel may impose any of the following penalties:

Reprimand - A communication, either public or private, of the corporation’s decision regarding the grievance complaint reprimand maybe combined with probation or suspension

Probation - A ruling that, for a specified time, the subject’s continued participation in the corporation’s activities, sanctioned competitions or membership program is conditioned upon satisfaction of certain conditions. These conditions shall be described specifically, as shall the consequences of failing to meet them. The Panel may order that notice of probation to be given to appropriate authorities, such as event directors.

Suspension or Expulsion - A ruling that, either permanently or for a specified period of time, the subject is prohibited from participating in sanctioned competitions or other corporation activities. The Hearing Panel may limit the effect of a suspension to certain activities or competitions, and may establish conditions that, if satisfied, will result in lifting of a suspension.

Section # 8 Appeal - Appeal from a decision from the hearing panel may be taken by any Party, including the corporation, to the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors, within ten (10) days of receipt of the decision of the Hearing Panel. The notice of appeal must set forth the basis for the appeal. The President will forward copies of the notice of appeal to the other Parties, all of who shall have the right to submit written responses to the appeal, which responses must be delivered to the President within ten (10) days of receipt of the notice of appeal. The President will then deliver to the Executive Committee the complete record of the appeal along with the written appeal and responses submitted by other parties. The President will not take part in the decision of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee, shall, by majority vote of all non-abstaining members and without considering new evidence or conducting additional hearing, render a written decision with respect to the appeal within thirty (30) days of receipt of notice and responses. A decision of the Executive Committee with respect to an appeal shall be final and binding on all parties.

Section # 9 Expedited Procedure - If the Complaint challenges a rule or decision affecting eligibility to participate in an International event or an event sanctioned or conducted by the corporation, the Complainant may, as part of his or her written Complaint, request that the Complaint be referred immediately to the President.

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

In response to such a request, the President will:

Send the Complainant a notice acknowledging receipt of the Complaint

Send to any Adverse Party a notice of the filing of the Complaint and a copy of the Complaint. No notice need be sent when the Adverse Party is the corporation. The notice shall include a copy of the Complaint and request that the Chair of the Grievance Committee appoint a Hearing Panel capable of conducting a hearing on an expedited basis.

Section # 10 General - All notices, reports and decisions under this Article shall be made in writing and delivered in person by registered mail, or other form of delivery creating a record of receipt. Any time period under this article may be reduced by direction of the President if he determines that such action is necessary to expedite the resolution of a controversy in order to do justice to any Party. Participation in a Grievance Procedure shall be deemed to constitute agreement to be bound by the provisions of this Article.

Article 11
Rights of Members and Right to Participate

Section # 1 Rights of Members

All member athletes and participants shall have equal and undisputed rights to participate in the business and workings of the X PF. The membership of the Board of Directors is the ruling body of the X PF and has no other responsibilities of reporting other than to the X Olympic Committee. It will be the soulful purpose and the intent of the X PF to conduct business in a fair and open manner and it must be stated that the X PF has the purpose and goal to include every interested party in the Parkour community.

Section # 2 Right to Participate

The X PF will not prohibit or restrict in any way, an athletes right to participate in an Parkour event or competition. There are only two circumstances by which an athlete would be restricted or sanctioned. These include, 1.) the athlete is sanctioned due to an infraction of the IOC or the IF's rules on doping or violating the protocols set forth in the Olympic charter or the respective rules established by the X PF, and / or 2.) an athlete is sanctioned by the X PF directly or by the X OC (the X National Olympic Committee) If this occurs, the athlete will have the right to appeal to the Code of Arbitration for Sport, in accordance with the Olympic Charter or directly through the Grievance procedure contained within these By Laws.

Section # 3 Rights of Gender

Participation in all X PF events, programs and competitions will be equally open to men and women. There will be no programs or events that will be limited by gender.

Article 12 Sport for the Disabled

Section # 1 Disabled Athletes

The X PF will make its best effort to create and offer participation in the action sports programs for disabled athletes.

The X PF will also work through the X Olympic Committee and the Disabled Sports Organizations (DSO's) in order to provide and offer opportunities to athletes and other individuals who have the desire and interest to participate in Parkour and related activities.

Article 13
Indemnification and Legal Fees

Section # 1 Indemnification

The corporation shall indemnify each of its present or former Directors, officers, employees or official representatives, or any person who is or was serving another corporation or other entity in any capacity at the request of the corporation, against all expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person (including, but not limited to, judgments, costs and counsel fees) in connection with the defense of any pending or threatened litigation to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was serving in such capacity. This right of indemnification shall also apply to expenses of litigation that are compromised or settled, including amounts paid in settlement, if the corporation shall approve such settlement as provided in Section 2 of this Article. Such person shall be entitled to be indemnified if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. The termination of any litigation by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation.

Any amount payable as indemnification under this Article X111 shall be determined and paid by the corporation pursuant to a determination by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Voting Directors, other than those Directors who have incurred additional or personal expenses for their participation in any such activities.

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

Article 14

Construction and Amendments to the By Laws

Section # 1 Amendments of the Bylaws - These By-laws may be altered, amended or repealed, or new By-laws may be adopted at any meeting of the Board of Directors by an affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3's) of all the Voting Directors, provided notice of the proposed alteration, amendments, repeal, or new By-laws are presented to the members within thirty (30) days of any meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section # 2 Editorial Changes - Non-substantive changes to the Bylaws, as for example the correction of typographical errors or the substitution of a new address for the corporation's principal office, may be made by the By-laws Committee without resort to vote by the Board of Directors, provided that any such changes are promptly reported to the Board.

Section # 3 Construction of Bylaws -

Whenever the context so requires, masculine shall include the feminine, the feminine shall include the masculine and the singular shall include the plural and conversely

If any portion of these By-laws shall be invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder of these By-laws shall be considered valid and operative, and effect shall be given to the intent manifested by that portion held invalid or in-operative.

40

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

Section # 4 Table of Contents –

The Table of Contents and heading used in these By-laws have been inserted for convenience only and do not constitute matter to be construed in interpretation.

Section # 5 Relation to Articles of Incorporation -

These By-laws are subject to, and governed by, the Articles of Incorporation.

Section # 6 Saving Clause –

Failure of literal or complete compliance with provisions of these By-laws in respect to dates and times of notice, or the sending or receipt of same, or errors in phraseology or notice of proposals, which in the judgment of members at meetings held do not injure the rights of members, shall not invalidate the actions or proceedings of the members at any meeting.

Article 15
Olympic Solidarity

Section # 1 Olympic Solidarity

The X Olympic Program and all it represents. This will be encouraged to the athletes that represent the X PF as well as the X PF's association with the X Olympic Committee. X PF will support and encourage participation in the IOC Olympic Solidarity program, as requested by the IOC and the X Olympic Committees.

Article 16
Olympic Charter

Section # 1 Recognition and Endorsement of the Olympic Charter

The X PF hereby states its support and endorsement of the Olympic Charter, its contents mandates and obligations. The X PF also will enforce and encourage its member athletes and all its affiliated organizations and other partners and associations to support and follow the rules and dictates of the Olympic Charter, in the best interests of sport.

Article 17
Awards and Recognitions

Section # 1 Awards

The Executive Committee in cooperation with the Awards Committee will work to establish the various awards and forms of recognition for the participants in Parkour events, programs and activities.

This will range from a title that may be achieved at international contests from the World Championships to the Olympic Games, to recognition for contributions in developmental programs and “grass roots” programming to recognition of sponsors and contributors to life- time achievement awards.

Awards shall be appropriately presented at either the annual meeting of the Board of Directors or at special events and contests, to be mutually determined by the Executive Committee or the Board of Directors.

Article 18
Legal Representation

Section # 1 Appointment of Legal Council

The President, with the approval of the Executive Committee, will appoint and hire legal representation to assist with the management and proper conduct of the X PF business.

Article 19
Accounting Firm

Section # 1 Appointment of Accounting Representation

The President, with the approval of the Executive Committee, will appoint and hire accounting and financial experts, in accordance with the laws of the X and the respective Tax organization within the country, to assist with the management and proper conduct of the X PF business. Such appointment will be reviewed on an annual basis by the Ethics Committee and it will be required that such assignment will carry with it the responsibility to guarantee to the Board of Directors and its membership that the International Federation will maintain its not – for – profit or tax – exempt taX Pstatus within the country, in compliance with the X Olympic Committee as well as these By-Laws.

Article 20

Section # 1 Arbitration

Any dispute arising on the occasion of or in connection with an athlete or individual's participation with the X PF may be submitted to arbitration for remedy. This may start with a filing of a Grievance or complaint, in accordance with these By- Laws. Specific details and information can be obtained through the X PF Legal Council as well as the Executive Committee or the Ethics Committee.

Article 21
Rules of Protocol

Section # 1 The rules of protocol at meetings of the Board of Directors and the X PF Executive Council, it's committees and the membership shall be conducted and governed according to Robert's Rules of Order (Newly Revised Edition) so far as applicable and when not inconsistent with the statutes or the best interests of the operation and management of the organization

Article 22

Powers

Section # 1 The X PF, the Board of Directors and its officers shall have the powers enumerated herein and all other powers allowed under common law, not inconsistent with these By-laws or the organization's mission, purposes and approved strategic plan.

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

Article 23

Business Plan

Section # 1 The X PF business plan and/or strategic plan shall be included in these By- laws as an attachment at the end of the document. They are included as Attachment “A”.

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

Article 24
World Anti-Doping Agency

Statement of commitment:

It is the goal of the X PF to commit ourselves to respect and obligate our athletes, coaches and all our participants to the work of the World Anti-Doping Agency. This is a critical part of sport and its value on our world's youth and all of culture and society. To this end, we will enforce these rules and mandate our participants to strictly adhere to WADA's rules, policies and protocols. Our enforcements will be no less restrictive than WADA's and the IOC and we will make our very best effort to use this program in a positive and education manner to teach and instruct our participating athletes and youth.

By-laws of the X Parkour Federation

Article 25
Executive Director / CEO

Section # 1 The X PF will, like most National Governing Bodies (NGB), employ a chief executive that will manage the day-to-day operations of the X PF business. This person will have the title of Executive Director / CEO. The Executive Director / CEO will be the primary contact with the membership as well as the X Olympic Committee and the International Federation. The Executive Director will be headquartered in an appropriate location, mutually agreed upon by the President and the Executive Committee

The Executive Director will have a specific list of duties and assignments. Some of these will include but not be limited to the following:

Prepare and assist to organize all the meetings of the X PF including the annual meeting and the meetings of the President and Executive Committee

Distribute all the necessary information and materials needed by the respective members and national organizations

Work with the President and all the committees to make sure that they are in compliance with these By Laws and all the responsibilities assigned to these committees within the structure of the X PF

Work with the X Olympic Committee and the membership and all the organizations and partners that make up the Parkour community to make sure that we are in compliance with all the requirements and obligation to compete in and participate in the Olympic Games and maintain our status as recognized member of the X Olympic Committee.

Conduct the business of the X PF according to good business practices including managing the finances, legal responsibilities, payments of bills and debts as well as the appropriate planning and management of personnel and business operations

All other deemed necessary assignments as prescribed by the President, Executive Committee and the Board of Directors.

Article 26 Olympic Games

Section # 1 Olympic Games

The X PF will work directly with and on behalf of the X Olympic Committee and their respective International Federation as it pertains to the Olympic Games and the future rights of participation in the Games. The X PF warrants its willingness to agree to participate under the rules and jurisdictions set forth and established by the IOC and the respective International Federation in the best interest of the Olympic relationship, the tradition of the Olympic movement and the future growth and development of Olympic Sport and Solidarity.

Article 27

Commercial Rights Associated with Athletic Participation

Section # 1 Commercial Rights of Athletes in association with the X PF

The Marketing and Properties Committee of the X PF will establish the rules and regulations specific to the rights to be granted to an athlete member or team when participating in an X PF contest or competition. Such rules will be enforced at all X PF events and rights and opportunities granted will not be unreasonably withheld.

Article 28
New Sports & Disciplines

It is the responsibility as well as the opportunity of the X PF to add new disciplines, activities and formats to our program, as deemed appropriate and as they fit into the platform of Parkour. Parkour is a performance based sport and is usually evaluated based upon subjective means, as opposed to a truly objective platform, such as speed, distance or height. At the same time, our manners and methods of evaluation need to be designed to greatly reduce and eliminate, to the best of our ability, subjectivity and thus we are able to select and identify our winners and best performers.

The numerous other disciplines that may be associated with Parkour category may include a great number of new and future performance platforms. Parkour may have some basic and inherent components such as it is a performance-based sport, it is not evaluated based upon speed, height or distance and it is creatively developed by the athletes and sports participants. The X PF is prepared to add and conduct these programs in the best interest of sport and the athletes that we are committed to serve.

Article 29
Official Seal

Section # 1 The X PF will have an official seal. Such seal will be attached to all official documents of the X PF. The presence of the seal verifies and validates documents that are officially prepared and distributed by the X PF.

Official letterhead and logo identification may be substituted for the seal in general documents and information distribution. The President shall have the authority to make such determinations

Article 30
Sanctioning

Section #1 Domestic Events

The X SF may issue a sanction for any domestic event or competition or exhibition or similar event in which a member athlete, judge or official participates.

Section # 2 Sanctions:

Any competition or exhibition held in the X that involves participation of foreign athletes or officials must be sanctioned by the X PF.

Section # 3 Invitations to compete in the X

All invitations to foreign athletes and officials must be extended by the X PF.

Section # 4 Invitations to compete abroad

All invitations for X athletes or judges to participate in competitions or exhibitions outside of the X must be extended by the host countries national governing body for Parkour through the X PF.

Section # 5 Powers of Sanctioning

Failure of any X PF member athlete or foreign athlete to follow the procedures listed in the above sanctioning information as well as those procedures contained within the statutes of the International Federation relating to international competitions or foreign events could render the athlete ineligible for participation in future X PF and IF events. Violations, depending on the actual occurrence may either be under the direct jurisdiction of the X PF or the IF.

Section # 6 Athlete Protection

Sanctions will not be unduly withheld. Upon reasonable request, they will be issued as long as the basic requirements.
