

Patna. RJD has announced its 'team' to enter the Bihar assembly elections this year. The RJD has released a list of 49 district heads, excluding Patna from its 50 organizational districts. Once again in the team of RJD state president Jagdanand Singh, RJD has expressed confidence in his My (Muslim and Yadav) equation. However, their number has been reduced in this team from the previous team of RJD.

In the list of district presidents issued by RJD state president Jagdanand Singh, 37 district heads have been changed in 50 districts. Only 12 district heads have been able to retain their posts. Patna district president has not been announced yet.

In this list, leaders coming from three upper caste (two Rajput, one Bhumihar) castes have been made district presidents. However no Brahmin has been included in the list. The 13 leaders from the Yadav caste have been made district presidents, while the number of Muslim district heads is 12. In the past, 23 District President of RJD was from Yadav caste. While the number of district heads coming from Muslim society was 17 in the earlier team.

In the list of district heads released by RJD, 14 backward castes and leaders coming from SC-ST category in eight districts have been made president. For the first time, the Principal General Secretary has also been appointed to support the chairman in all districts.
