TYPES OF BIKEWAYS

- Protected Bike Lanes
- Buffered Bike Lanes
- Neighborhood Greenways
- Off-Street Trails

WHO'S ALLOWED IN THE BIKE LANE?

- Bicycles
- Electric Scooters/Skateboards
- Electric Bicycles
- Personal Mobility Devices

SHARING THE STREET

Bike Path
- Pedestrians
- Bicycles
- Electric Scooters/Skateboards
- Electric Bicycles

Walking Path
- Pedestrians
- Bicycles
- Electric Scooters/Skateboards
- Electric Bicycles

BE CAUTIONOUS AROUND TRUCKS

- People walking, especially children, should check both sides before crossing.
- Trucks have large blind spots.

TIPS FOR PEOPLE BIKING

- Use your hands to signal turns and junctions.
- Be aware of other users, especially cyclists.
- Use your lights, especially when approaching intersections.

TIPS FOR PEOPLE DRIVING

- Slow down and watch for cyclists.
- Look out for cyclists before turning.
- Use your lights, especially when approaching intersections.

BEHAVIORAL TIPS

- Always use hand signals.
- Be patient and considerate of others.
- Don't honk or be aggressive.

LEGAL TIPS

- Always wear a helmet.
- Use a bell or horn.
- Follow traffic laws.

SPECIALIZED TIME FRAME

- Summer
- Winter
- Spring
- Fall

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

- This map is for educational purposes.
- It does not include all bike lanes in the city.
- It is subject to change.

The City of Chicago has partnered with CDOT to create this map. The City is committed to ensuring that all Chicagoans have access to safe and convenient bike infrastructure.