A food lover's paradise

Why I love my suburb

Tell us about you. I'm Olivia Briggs, 26, and I live in Cremorne. I work in tech sales and study post-grad law, part-time.

You love Cremorne because? Easy access to the city and beach. Good food and drinks.

Favourite local place for coffee? Open Circus – always great coffee and food.

Describe a typical day? During COVID my days are not as eventful. A short (30 second) walk to my desk. Some mornings I'd walk up to a local coffee spot to start the day. I train most afternoons and cook dinner of an evening (enough for lunch the following day).

Where is your 'home away from home'? Bikini Bods – Muay Thai Boxing in Neutral Bay. Through COVID-19 they held outdoor boot camps and that kept me sane and fit.

Favourite local restaurant? Radio Cairo (right) in Cremorne. The variety of flavours and gluten and dairy free options are incredible. Best sago/tapioca pudding in Sydney.

Area's best kept secret? The gluten and dairy free cheesecake at Bloom cafe in Mosman.

Where do you grab your bread/groceries and why?

Berkelo Bakery for their gluten-free bread. Harris Farm for my fruit and veg and the new, Seafood @ Mosman for fish. Fourth Village for my special occasions.

What's keeping you busy? Helping The Gut Foundation launch Understanding Endometriosis, Irritable Bowel Syndrome and Chronic Pelvic Pain. I hope this report will help women get a quicker more accurate diagnosis paired with the correct treatment and reduce pain and suffering.

What do you love about your suburb? Tell us at editor @mosmandaily.com.au
