A Little Morning Exercise (this is not an organized group activity) – get up early & walk or bike ride:

Boise River Greenbelt –Twenty-three miles of paved paths along the Boise River with its towering trees, lush growth and abundant wildlife (bald eagles, Canadian geese, ducks, mink, squirrels, beaver and various other) offer a fabulous way to enjoy a leisurely walk or bike ride and get that "back-to-nature" feeling. If you miss the Greenbelt, you have missed Boise!

A Little History of Boise -- (roughly 9:30 a.m. till 12:30):

Tour of Old Idaho Penitentiary -- The "Old Pen" is a view of prison life in the West over the span of 100 years. The castle-like fortress was built in 1870 and was enlarged over the years, often with prisoner labor, until 1973 when a new prison replaced this one. Visitors take a 90-120 minute guided tour through solitary confinement cells, death row and the gallows, site of Idaho's only hanging in 1957. The building also houses several museums within the museum.

- Arrive at Old Pen parking lot by 9:45
- Location – Old Penitentiary Road at end of Warm Springs Avenue
- Tours begin at 10:00 and last 1 ½ -2 hours
- Admission cost is $5 adult / $4 seniors / $3 kids (6-12)

Lunch – 12:30 BBQ'd hamburgers at Municipal Park. Site #7
