Dear Members,

This past week you received emails relating to the upcoming Purim Holiday, Friday Feb 26th. To celebrate the holiday, and to meet with our members and our community - even if only for a few fleeting moments - is something Rabbi Banon and I are looking forward to, B'H. I have asked you all to let me know whether you will be able to participate in the Purim Shaloch Mones drive-by - similar to the drive-by we had at Hanukkah - and whether anyone wishes to attend our Megillah readings in shul Erev Purim Thursday evening and Purim on Friday morning. As indicated, there are many preparations to look after, and we have to of course, take all safety precautions. For those who are interested, please advise me by Sunday Feb 14th (Happy Valentine's Day!), if you haven't already done so. After that date, it will be extremely hard to include anyone who hasn't registered.

We will also have the Megillah reading on Zoom, and all details, schedules, etc will be posted in next week's newsletter, as well as emails early in the week. Stay tuned.

Keep Well! Stay Safe - Stay Healthy!

Issie

PARSHAT HASHAVUA - WEEKLY TORAH PORTION

Terumah Exodus 25:1-27:19

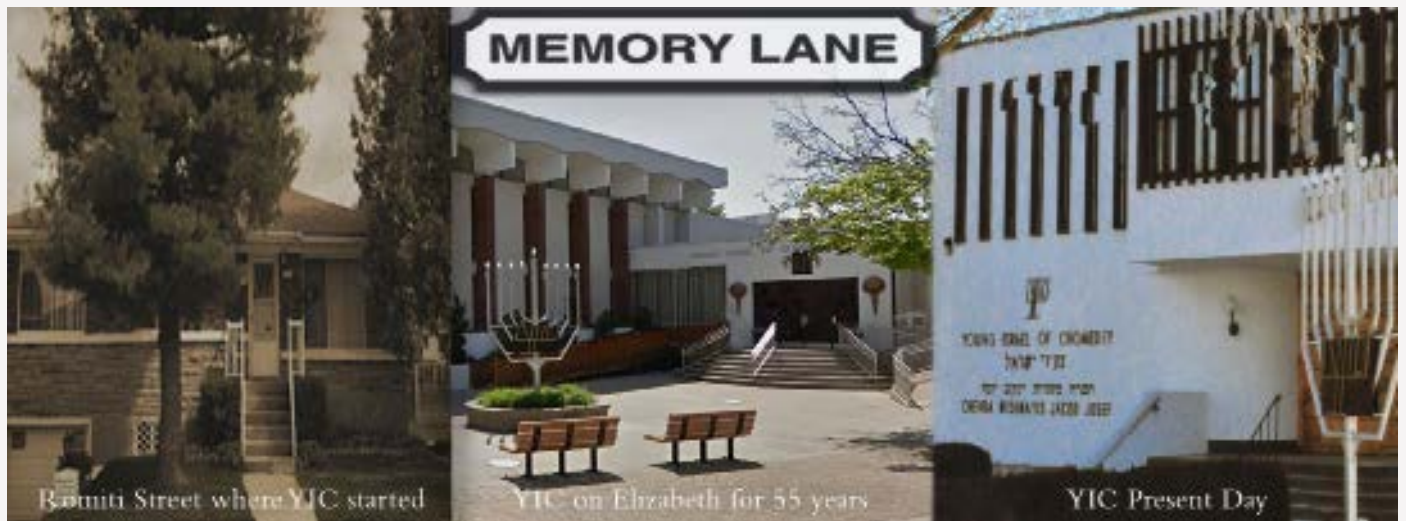

The people of Israel are called upon to contribute thirteen materials—gold, silver and copper; blue-, purple- and red-dyed wool; flax, goat hair, animal skins, wood, olive oil, spices and gems—out of which, G-d says to Moses, "They shall make for Me a Sanctuary, and I shall dwell amidst them."

On the summit of Mount Sinai, Moses is given detailed instructions on how to construct this dwelling for G-d so that it could be readily dismantled, transported and reassembled as the people journeyed in the desert.

In the Sanctuary's inner chamber, behind an artistically woven curtain, was the ark containing the tablets of testimony engraved with the Ten Commandments; on the ark's cover stood two winged cherubim hammered out of pure gold. In the outer chamber stood the seven-branched menorah, and the table upon which the "showbread" was arranged.

The Sanctuary's three walls were fitted together from 48 upright wooden boards, each of which was overlaid with gold and held up by a pair of silver foundation sockets. The roof was formed of three layers of coverings: (a) tapestries of multicolored wool and linen; (b) a covering made of goat hair; (c) a covering of ram and tachash skins. Across the front of the Sanctuary was an embroidered screen held up by five posts.

Surrounding the Sanctuary and the copper-plated altar which fronted it was an enclosure of linen hangings, supported by 60 wooden posts with silver hooks and trimmings, and reinforced by copper stakes.

(YASHIR KOACH to Fred Rudy for providing us all with these memorable historical moments, which some of us may still remember!)

I couldn't resist the cartoons below on this week's Torah portion!

Of Biblical Proportions by Charl Fere

It can be difficult to grasp exactly what people of the Israel should do... it's like the thing by...
 "The Priest shall cause them to go up in smoke on the Altar, a fire-offering to G-d." (Leviticus 1:17)

IT IS ONLY I REMOVED OUR ANNIHILATION IT WAS AN MOMENT OF STAGN. HERE'S A LITTLE SOMETHING TO MAKE IT UP TO YOU.

We also had this suit made, just in case the Cohen happened to turn out extra- "gadol", if you know what I mean...

Of Biblical Proportions by Charl Fere

Regarding the guilt offerings: "The Priest shall cause them to go up in smoke on the Altar, a fire-offering to G-d." (Leviticus 1:17)

WHY AREN'T YOU WEARING YOUR COHEN GADOL OUTFIT?!

I FIGURE I WEAR A COSTUME ALL YEAR, SO PURIM IS MY BREAK.

DOMATIONS OF GOLD SILVER AND BRONZE FOR THE MISHKAN

Let me put this in a language we both understand: You take me off the list of sacrificial animals, and I don't eat you.
