A HAPPY & FREILICHEN PURIM

Dear Members and Friends,
 On behalf of our entire Shul Executive and the Clergy, I would like to take this opportunity to wish each and every one of you a Frelichen Purim, a Happy and Healthy Purim. A year ago, we enjoyed a wonderful Purim Party with the members of our shul and Shaar Shalom. This year, it is somewhat different. For those who signed up for our Purim drive-by and Shaloch Mones give-a-way (registration is now closed), please pay close attention to the email you will be receiving in the next day or so, with the clear and concise instructions on how and when the drive-by will take place. I personally ask everyone to please abide by the instructions, and to arrive at the allotted time ONLY, so that we have an ORDERLY and uneventful drive-by. I encourage everyone who shows up for the Zoom Megillah reading on Thursday evening, to dress up in the best costume you can prepare under the circumstances, and join in the Purim festivities, as we Jews have done for millenia. Let's not let the pandemic dampen our festive spirits as we celebrate the holiday. Keep Well! Stay Safe - Stay Healthy!

Overjoyed grandparents are Bill & Laura Chyfetz. MAZAL TOV once again to the entire Chyfetz family.

CONDOLENCES: The Young Israel of Chomedey Executive and members are sad to announce the passing on Thursday Feb 18th of long-time member Lenny Malinoff, z'l. Lenny & Bluma Malinoff were original and active members of the shul, and proudly attended services there regularly. During our High Holidays he eagerly purchased seats for members of his family, and attended all services until recently; he was delighted to share these special observances with them.

A bright businessman who was always at least one step ahead of his competitors, he had the wisdom and commitment to acquire FRANK'S RENTALS from the Lubiner Family and continued to serve the city-wide Jewish community with reliability and support above and beyond the call of duty and, particularly, to his beloved shul. With every holiday bulletin, Lenny insisted that his FRANK'S RENTALS ad would occupy a prime location in the periodical, as another method of supporting the shul financially. Lenny had a great sense of humour and looked forward to sharing his seemingly endless amount of funny material with his many friends in the synagogue. His friendly smile and good nature and his dedication to our community and its welfare remain a permanent legacy to his blessed memory. Our condolences are extended to his wife Bluma, his children and grandchidren, extended family and friends, and to his brother-in-law Lou Gontovnick, also a member of our shul.

“May the Family Know no Further Sorrows”

REFUAH SHLEMA: a) A continued REFUAH SHLEMA to Simmy and especially Beryl Grabina, who continues to improve -and we continue to wish them well in their recovery. b) And a REFUAH SHLEMA to all who are not well.

PARSHAT HASHAVUA - WEEKLY TORAH PORTION

Tetzaveh Exodus 27:20-30:10

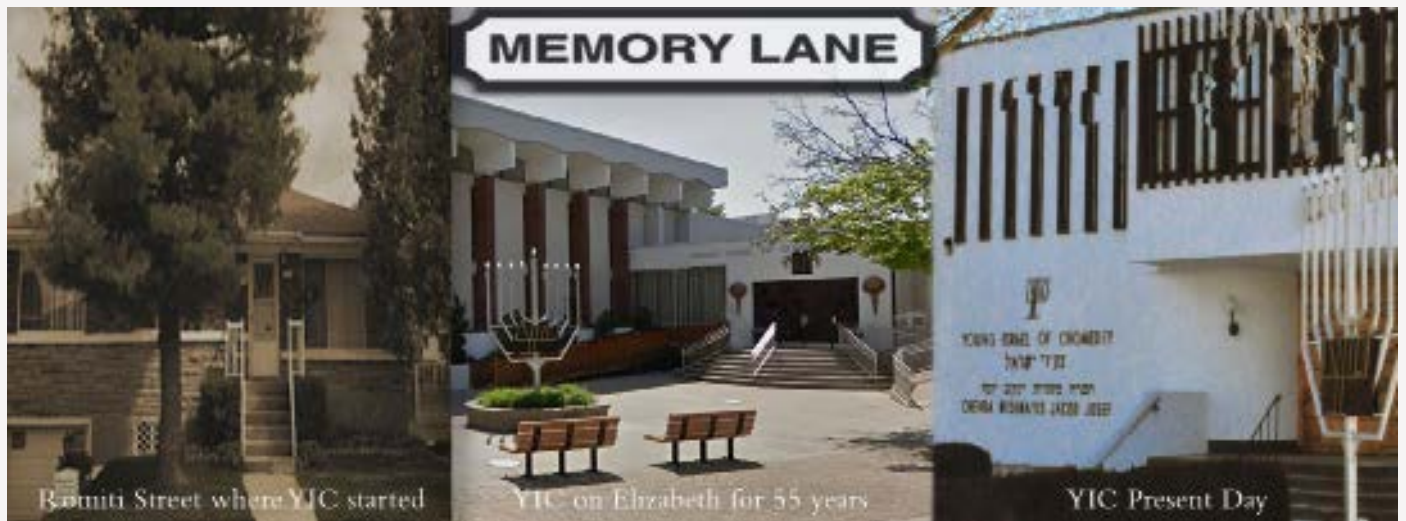

G-d tells Moses to receive from the children of Israel pure olive oil to feed the “everlasting flame” of the menorah, which Aaron is to kindle each day, “from evening till morning.”

The priestly garments, to be worn by the kohanim (priests) while serving in the Sanctuary, are described. All kohanim wore: 1) the ketonet—a full-length linen tunic; 2) michna-sayim—linen breeches; 3) mitznefet or migba’at—a linen turban; 4) avnet—a long sash wound above the waist.

In addition, the kohen gadol (high priest) wore: 5) the efod—an apron-like garment made of blue-, purple- and red-dyed wool, linen and gold thread; 6) the chosh-en—a breastplate containing twelve precious stones inscribed with the names of the twelve tribes of Israel; 7) the me’il—a cloak of blue wool, with gold bells and decorative pomegranates on its hem; 8) the tzitz—a golden plate worn on the forehead, bearing the inscription “Holy to G-d.”

Tetzaveh also includes G-d’s detailed instructions for the seven-day initiation of Aaron and his four sons—Nadav, Avihu, Elazar and Itamar—into the priesthood, and for the making of the golden altar, on which the ketoret (incense) was burned.
