

It is hard to find any good labor market news. The lack of stimulus money, increased lockdowns and surging COVID-19 cases continue to make getting a job difficult. Weekly initial claims rose 181k to 965k. The increase was the largest since March.

